Some time after being sentenced and made to go through "public service punishment", Soleil tried his best to get back to his normal life, but it seemed the task was close to impossible.

He knew that having the whole humiliating ordeal publicly available would probably affect him badly, but he never expected to be close to completely unable to find any job and, the one time he had finally managed to land one, to just be inexplicably fired from it.

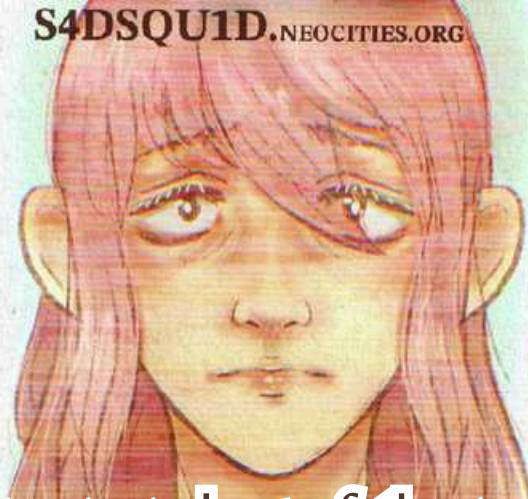

Eventually, the little money he had saved was running out and he found himself running out of options.

He still had the phone number of the man who cut off his clit on that day, who claimed that he would “help” him. Sol isn’t stupid, though, he knew it was some sort of trap and decided that anything better would be better than to depend on such an awful man.

His only other alternative was to volunteer at a governmental “public service facility”. As his current situation implies, he has chosen the latter.

S4d

Aside from having his most sensitive parts exposed for free use, the “job” requires volunteers to provide both abstain from birth control and provide breast milk for the state.

This was one of the ways the country had decided to deal with the whole birth rate declining and all.

Soleil at least was already in the very early stages of carrying twins due to his previous punishment, so at least he didn't have to worry about the first part.

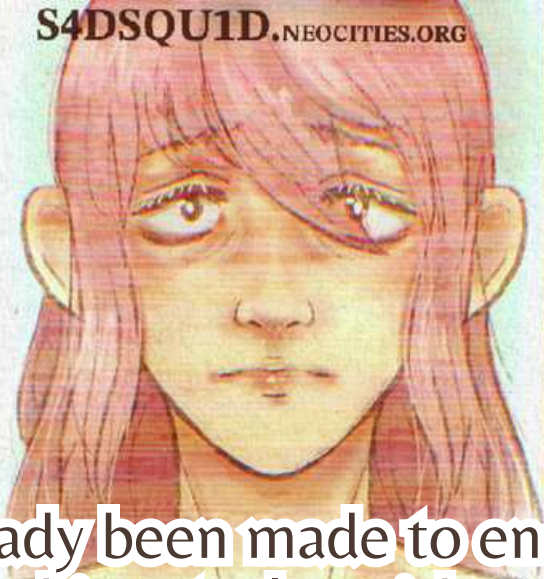

But of course, if by the time of birth he doesn't manage to find a stable job outside of volunteering, which seems extremely unlikely right now, he would not be allowed to even keep the babies...

But anyway, he already been made to endure much, much worse things during his actual punishment anyway, how worse could volunteering it be?

SUBS

At the very least, when going in voluntarily, he got to have some semblance of privacy as, unlike in his punishment, he is allowed to not announce it on his social media and his contacts are not texted about it.

The whole thing is still streamed live and recordings are attached to his original punishment page, however. Furthermore, anyone can record and upload pictures and videos to it.

Sol is startled when people first start touching him, it's been a while since his punishment so is no longer used to the foreign touches. Being unable to see them or predict people's movements also make it somehow more stressing.

He grits his teeth and tries his best to tough it out.

If he can endure that then, at least he would have two meals a day and a place to sleep. It's the bare minimum, but without this, he'd have nothing at all...

The only good part in all of this was that, after the 6 daily hours required were over, he could still try and look for a “normal” job!

He still hopes he can find something, anything, and be free from this never ending hell.

Even though his current situation is awful, it can come to an end... Right?

Because Sol is still too early in pregnancy to actually produce milk, he was made to take medicine in order to induce it.

Even so, it takes several minutes of pumping before it starts taking effects, and it's extremely uncomfortable.

To make matters worse for him, inducing lactation ended up making his breasts even bigger than before, and more tender and sensitive too.

He absolutely hates it, especially because he has been explicitly forbidden to do anything resembling to binding, as personnel worries it can make affect his “production”.

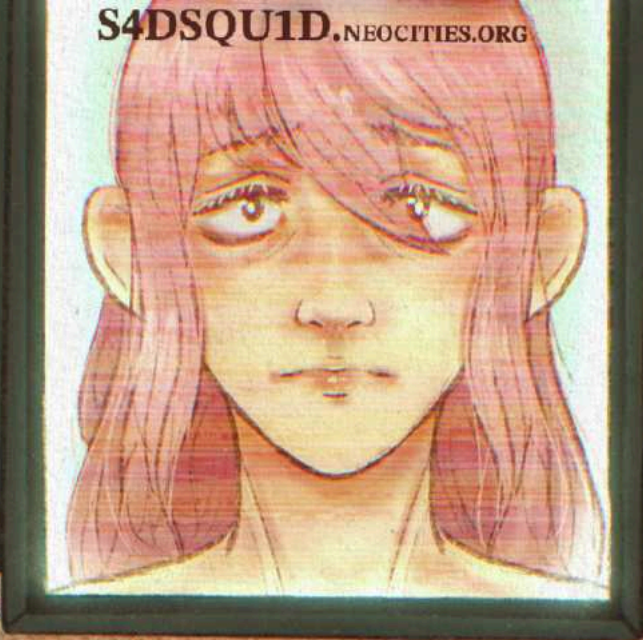

His chest dysphoria had always been bad, but this made it nearly unbearable. This is the absolutely worst part of it all for him. That and pregnancy itself, probably.

This is the last thing he should be worrying about but still, it unnerves him.

It will be a very, very long 6 hours...

Because his skin reddens so easily, people seem to have taken a liking to slapping his exposed flesh, both during and after use.

Sol is, of course, completely helpless to stop any of it. Because the walls are soundproof, his screams and begging will be heard by no one. All he can do is endure.

Some more time pass. Both his roles hurt, reddish and chaffed raw from repeated fucking.

Soleil has lost count of how many people have used his holes, to how many different strangers the fluids inside of him belonged to.

His punishment had lasted 24 hours and, the final count of people, as he had been told, were of well over 200. All different strangers. Thinking of it always makes him shudder.

He wonders what his total will be once he is done with today. And tomorrow. And the day after. And...

Soleil shakes his head, trying to force himself into not thinking about it anymore.

His butt, thighs and even feet burn from all the slapping and rough handling. It seems things have escalated much faster than he had anticipated.

He wonders if being unable to see one's reactions makes people turn to violence that much quicker...

Of course, things can always get even worse.

It doesn't take long for people to figure out Soleil has very sensitive feet, and so, decide to tickle him.

It's too much. Sol reflexively tries to set himself free, shaking wildly, almost hurting himself in the process. but of course, it's to no avail.

The walls will only open after the full 6 hours have passed, and no earlier. No matter what.

He screams, begs and cries but, as expected, it doesn't make the torment stop. It's not like anyone can hear him anyway. In a way, it's a blessing in disguise. At this point, Sol is sure that his pleading would only make the torturous tickling worse.

Soleil feels like he's about to faint. He hopes he does.

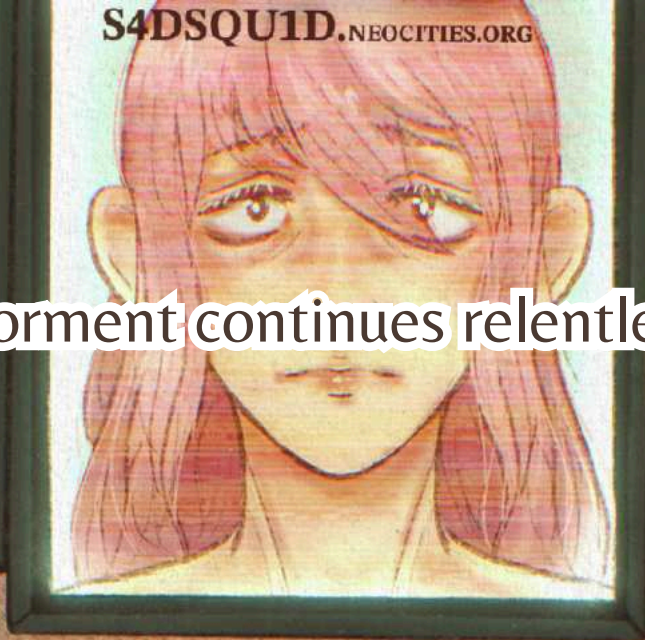

Sadly, his wish doesn't come true.

He had grown used to pain and humiliation at this point but this...tickling!!! No... this was somehow too much...

This, of all things... it sounds so silly! He can't help but feel embarrassed about it.

He cries, wondering how many more hours of this he'd have to endure.

Unlike the strangers on the other side of the wall, Sol does not have access to a countdown. In fact, he had been confined to a very small, soundproof cubicle.

Soleil is stuck inside the cement walls until the time runs out.

It seems people have taken Sol's own peeing as an invitation of sorts. They too release themselves, aiming directly at the volunteer's exposed feet.

It burns as it comes in contact with the patches of broken skin.

Although he can't see or smell, he quickly understands what is happening.

Yes, he is grossed out, very much so, but at the same time, Soleil can't help but feel thankful that, at the very least, the tickling had stopped.

And, well, it's not like much worse hadn't been already inflicted on him the day he was punished anyway....

Cum, piss and other bodily fluids from god-only-knows how many people drip from both of Sol's holes, the wall under him completely drenched in them. Not even his hands and feet had been spared.

Soleil's limbs have gone numb from the strain, but the constant ache in his exposed, sensitive skin still remains.

To add insult to injury, his nipples are raw from the constant suction as well. Surely they will be extremely sore to the touch at the end of it.

Not only that, after a few days of this, surely they be way too long and will keep poking through his shirts. Considering he is not allowed to conceal them, how the hell is he supposed to try and land a job like that?

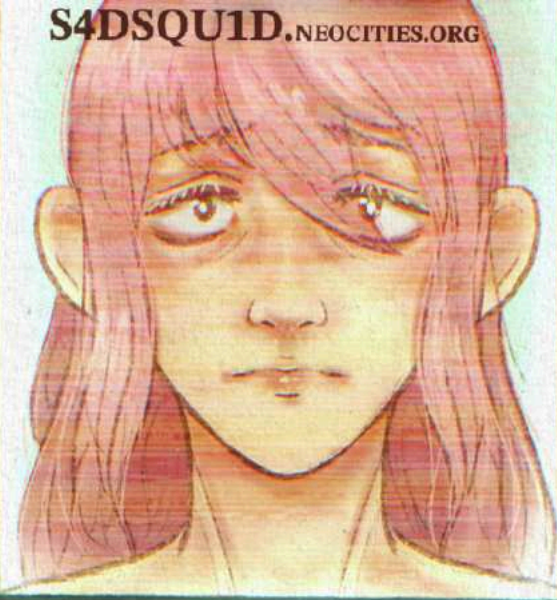

Is this just a way to make sure he is trapped in this hellish "job" forever?

They play around with his pussy and asshole, freely spreading them wide open, fingering, rubbing his insides, poking at his walls.

They do as they please, with no regard of what the person on the other side may feel. Truly it was just as if his lower body was an object, completely detached from an actual person.

Poor Sol can do nothing but sob, whimpering and hoping for the time to run out soon.

They continue at it, seemingly entertained by the exposed man's reactions. His whole body shuddering, his holes twitching and, to his dismay, even, somehow, getting wet.

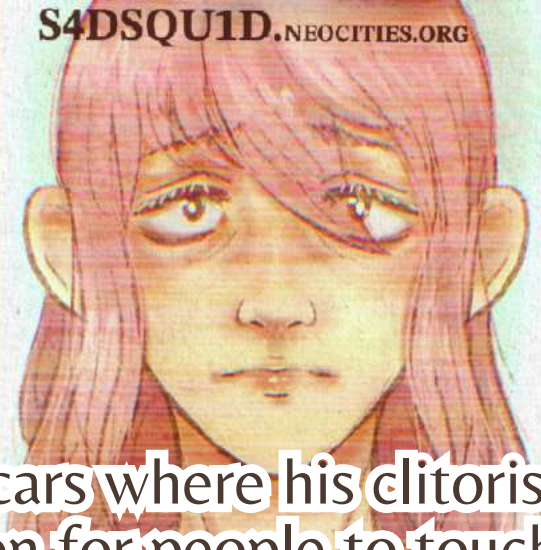

He hates the way his body reacts at times like this. He hates how he knows people will use it against him. It's awful. His only consolation is that, since getting his clit removed, he, at the very least, could no longer embarrass himself by cumming,

As bittersweet as it felt to admit it, that man might have ruined an aspect of his life, but ended up doing him a favor in another.

With nothing but scars where his clitoris once had been, it wasn't uncommon for people to touch and prod at it, mostly out of curiosity.

Most, however, soon moved on to what they had originally come to do, whatever that might be.

Soleil hates having his scars touched. It felt too weird. A mix of numbness, a sense of dread, maybe some sort of phantom limb pain. It was anxiety inducing. It felt wrong, somehow.

Yes, these two people wouldn't stop caressing it, poking, pinching, flicking at it. He feels like he is going to mad from it all.

They had already been planning on inserting fleshlights on both of his holes after they were done tormenting him, but they decide to take a step further.

Maybe to "teach him a lesson". Maybe just because they enjoy tormenting volunteers and punished alike.

They wrap both the fleshlights with nettles, using some of the fluids on the wall to "glue" them in place.

The guards pass by and laugh with the strangers. One of them even takes pictures. The public is allowed to use the volunteers as they see fit. In theory, they may only interfere if it's something that they know for sure might cause permanent damage or kill them.

In practice, many just let anything happen. The punishment if one of them dies is a slap on the wrist at most, but being overzealous might cost their careers.

Sol screams, the stinging growing stronger and stronger. It burns, it itches and he can't get rid of it no matter how much he shakes and moves and struggles.

He tries to push the fleshlights out with all his might but after all the abuse, his muscles down there are too weakened to be of much help.

Finally, he realizes the pumps on his nipples are gone.

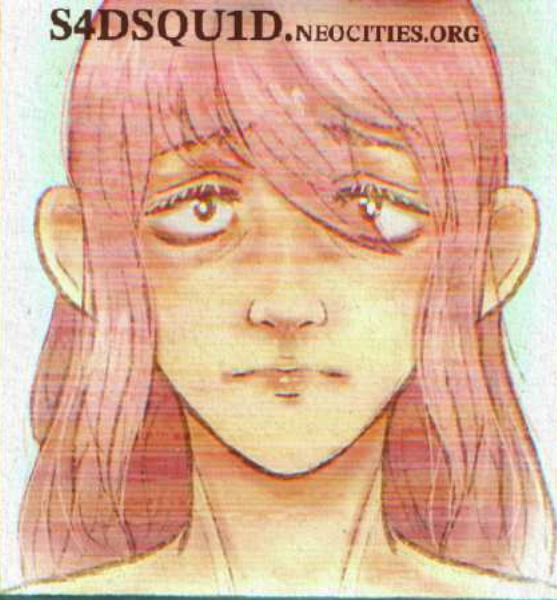

He knows he will be punished for it somehow but the sensation on his body on the side of the wall is too strong, taking away his ability to even think. He physically can't worry about it at the moment.

In the end, Sol was left in that state for over 90 minutes.
All while being used by even more strangers, of course.

To him, those minutes lasted an eternity.

S4d

He can no longer even scream.

Soleil's throat had become too raw for that. All he can manage now is quiet sobs between bloody coughing.

He can scarcely believe when the wall finally opens up and he falls to the ground.

With the little strenght the still has, he quickly removes the nettles from his body, before falling to the ground, exhausted.

No one comes to help him. A volunteer is required care of themselves, after all.

After a whole hour, he finally manages to sit down.

He needs to get up, shower and then go to the medical bay to check on his fetuses and maybe, if he's lucky, receive some care for his own wounds. But he doesn't have the strenght to get up yet.

He looks at himself. His ass, cunt, asshole, hands and feet are bright red, itching and burning and hurting like hell. His whole body is sore from the strained position he was in. Just moving around hurt.

And yet, this had only been the first day.

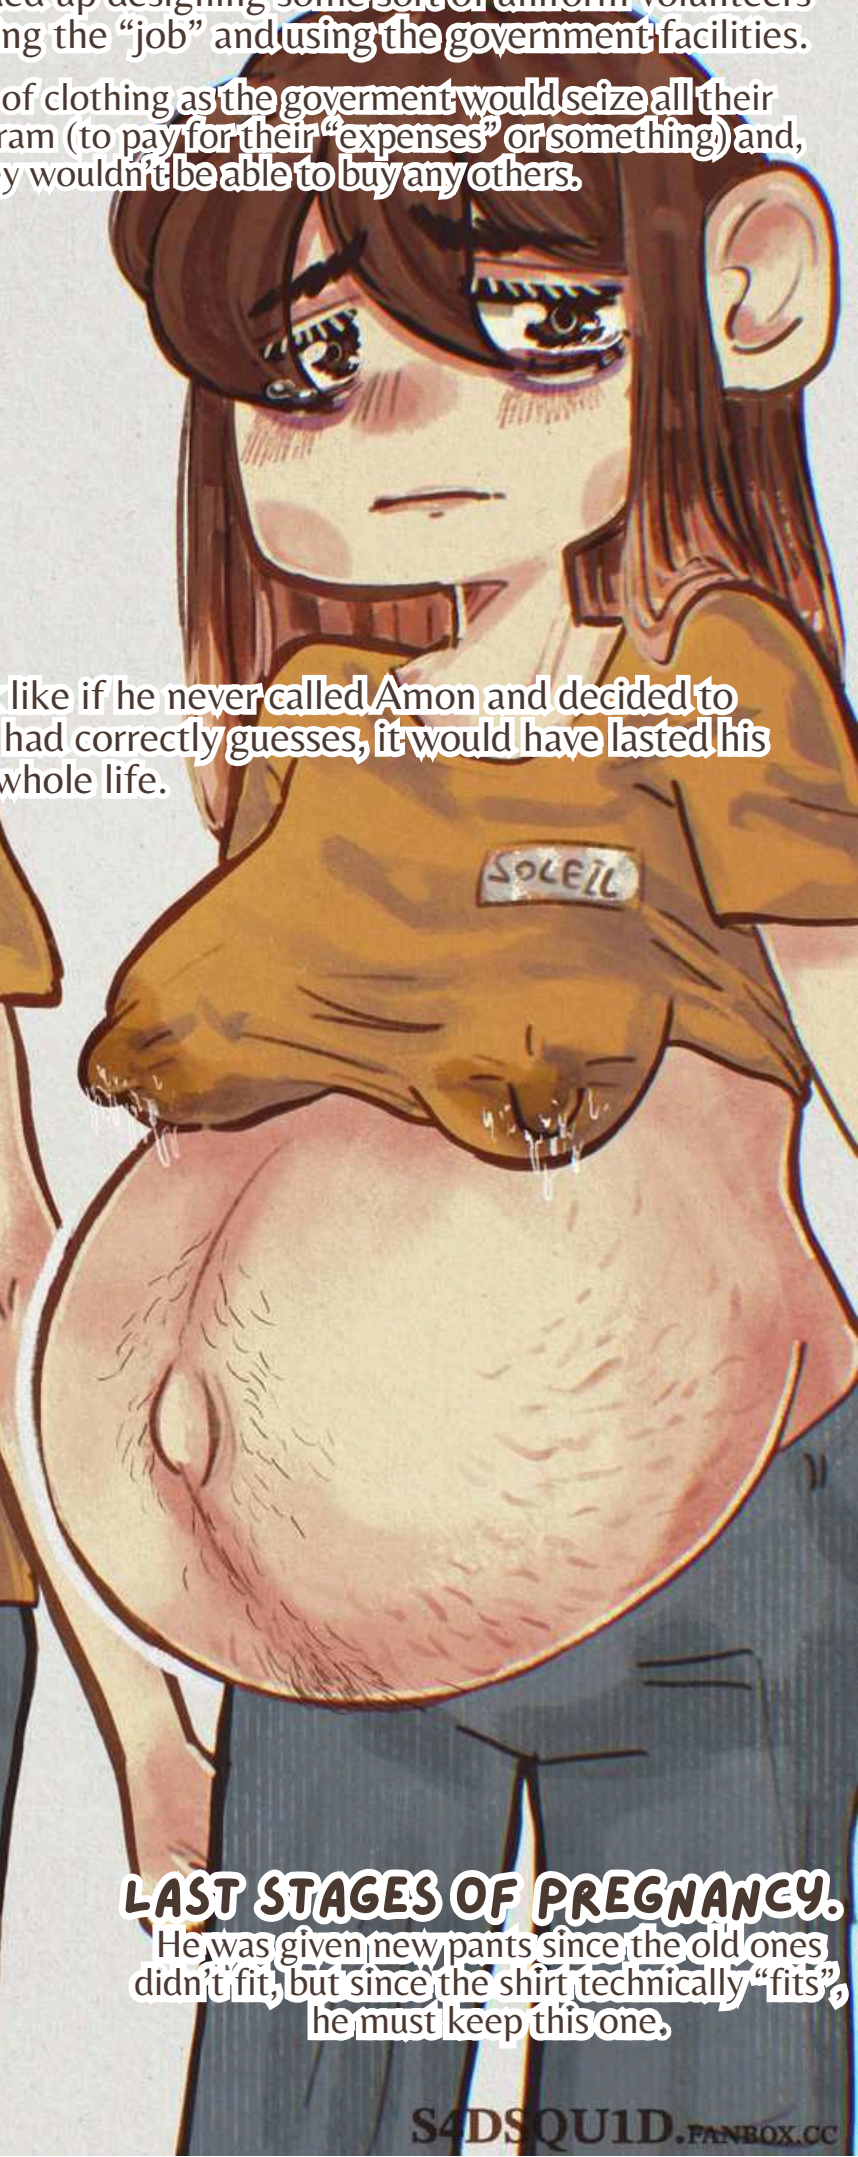

He is expected to do the exact same every single day, probably for the rest of his life. While being made pregnant and being milked, his body being forcibly changed at the mercy of the state. Deep inside, he knows once he in this hell, there's no way out. That's how the system had been designed to work. He had beel foolish to think otherwise.

Soleil calls him the following morning.

I wasn't able to fit into the story, but I ended up designing some sort of uniform volunteers would be made to wear during while holding the "job" and using the government facilities.

They wouldn't be allowed any other type of clothing as the government would seize all their belongings upon joining the volunteer program (to pay for their "expenses" or something) and, since they don't get paid, they wouldn't be able to buy any others.

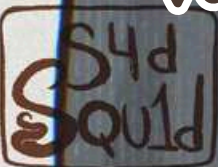

Anyway this is was Sol would look like if he never called Amon and decided to continue serving as volunteer. As he had correctly guesses, it would have lasted his whole life.

AFTER THE FIRST DAY VOLUNTEERING.

LAST STAGES OF PREGNANCY.

He was given new pants since the old ones didn't fit, but since the shirt technically "fits", he must keep this one.

THANK YOU FOR READING!

Author's note:

Hey! I've been wanting to write more about the period between Sol's punishment and what led him to accept Amon's terms so here it is! While the part where Sol was fired from his job was Amon's doing, him not being able to land (almost) anything and finding himself forced to do "volunteer" public service is kinda how the system is designed. It's not called DYSTOPIA AU for nothing >.>

Fun fact, DYSTOPIA AU is technically an AU for the HUMAN AU, not for canon. I mean, the main INFERNA story is already based on a dystopia, it wouldn't make sense to have a dystopia AU for an already dystopic society LOL.

Anyway, hope you like it! ^w^
