After giving birth to his first litter as a Public Breeding Pet, his trainers have decided to punish Soleil for his bad, selfish behavior during labor.

Firstly, he is gagged, so he won't be able to complain at all. Then, the piercings on the left side of his cunt and the one on the top of his clit are fixed to the ground, severely limiting his movements.

On top of that, his right leg is forcibly held up by a leather strap attached to a tree branch above. Another strap, attached to a collar, equipped inner spikes, and the aforementioned leg, keeps him from being able to rest his head without hurting himself. To make sure he can absolutely cannot get comfortable, his arms are also tightly secured behind his legs.

gghh!!

Are you in pain already?
How pathetic!

If you're already whining, I can't imagine how bad it will get once we begin to actually punish you, haha!!

This setup makes the already tight stitching of his previously torn open pussy be constantly pulled from both directions, causing sharp pain anytime he so much as flinches.

Soleil can do nothing but lay there, trying desperately not to move, unable to escape any and all abuse he is soon to endure.

He can't help but jolt when three potent vibrators are taped to his vulnerable clit. This, as expected, makes both the piercings and the stitches suddenly pull in different directions, aggravating the pain on his already aching genitals. Further tormenting him.

The vibrations, however, are a hell of their own. When being trained by his previous owner, the pet had received almost daily injections on his clit, which permanently increased the sensitivity of it by at least tenfold. Any sort of touching normally causes a mix of extreme pain and unbearable, unwanted pleasure, but the constant, nonstop vibrations are much, much worse than regular touching, pulling or even flicking.

How do you like the vibrations?
We got the strongest available, just for you!

Pwaah!!

ghhhhh!!

You better get used to them, pet~

As long as your punishment last, they are staying put!

The pet is afforded no breaks as, as soon as the wolves finish mocking him, a huge plug is inserted into his anus. This, he thinks, isn't particularly bad, as he had gotten used to such things, until he realizes there's something unusual about this one.

The temperature of the metal never adjusts to his body, in fact, it seems to get colder and colder, to the point he starts losing sensation on the area. The small relief this brought, however, is short lived.

As soon as Soleil starts getting a bit used to the cold, the plug starts to rapidly warm up. He isn't sure he if his insides are actually burning or, if it just seems like it due the temperature shock. Either way, he knows this thing is yet another torture device, designed to bring him nothing but constant torment.

You know, we only use this one on pets that behave particularly bad. Not only it's supposed to cause constant discomfort, after only 5 hours of use, it will permanently damage your rectum.

S4d Squid

arf arf arf...

Of course, your punishment will last waaaaay longer than that, which means, you'll likely end up completely incontinent after it!

Don't worry, we'll leave you plugged up so you won't get everywhere dirty after your punishment.

We'll make sure to pick an extra big and spiky one for the job~

In what could almost pass as an act of mercy, if not for the constant agony he had been forced to endure, Soleil's captors leave him alone for a while.

They talk among themselves, the poor pet writhing in pain right in front of them going completely ignored, as if he was lower than even an object.

"How long should we make his punishment anyway?"

"How about..., hmmm..."

"I know! He should get one week for each pup he put in danger!"

"Oooh, that would be extremely appropriate!"

"So, 8 weeks? I almost feel bad for him, haha!"

Soleil grimaces.

His situation is so dire that he catches himself wishing he could go back to being in regular Breeding Pet. Suddenly, daily knotting, pinching and pulling and even pregnancy and childbirth didn't seem that horrible.

Not as horrible as this.

Not as horrible as the other 'surprises' those wolves will surely come up with. He wants to cry but put's all of his remaining strength into trying to hold it in. Not due to a misguided sense of pride or anything like that, no, he just knows that if he sobs, he will be moving around and any sort of movement is way, way too painful.

With that, he realizes, any sliver of emotional relief he could have had also been taken away. This makes it even harder to hold in his tears but, somehow, he manages for the time being.

A few hellish hours pass and, soon enough, the wolves are back. This time, they attach the milking machine to Soleil's teats again, which, surprisingly, brings the pet some respite. His breasts had already swollen with milk in the time between the start of his punishment and the current moment, which had been increasing his overall discomfort further.

The pet knows that this isn't really part of his punishment. His captors need to collect the milk from all Breeding Pets and it needs to be healthy and uncontaminated in order to feed all the pups. Thanks to that, for the time being, the only torment his breasts will get will be the constant sucking of the machine. The rest of his body, however, especially his cunt, do not have similar "protections". So, when they are done with fitting the machine to all six of his nipples, the wolves swiftly insert a thick, textured, vibrating rod inside Soleil's urethra.

ghhhh!!

Since your punishment will be a long one, we've decided to finally run some...experiments~

You see, there's some modifications we have wanted to try out on you pets for ages, but we thought it would be waaaaaay too painful to do it on a well-behaved pet.

We aren't heartless monsters, after all!!

*pant* *pant*

arghh!!

But as a punishment for egregious behavior such as yours, though? It will be perfectly fitting!

They play around with the rod, inserting it all the way before pulling it out, changing speed and intensity at random. Once they seem satisfied, they shove it all the way and leave it there.

They leave the pet alone for the day, knowing that the position he is forced to stay in and the devices inserted into him will be more than enough to keep Soleil in constant agony.

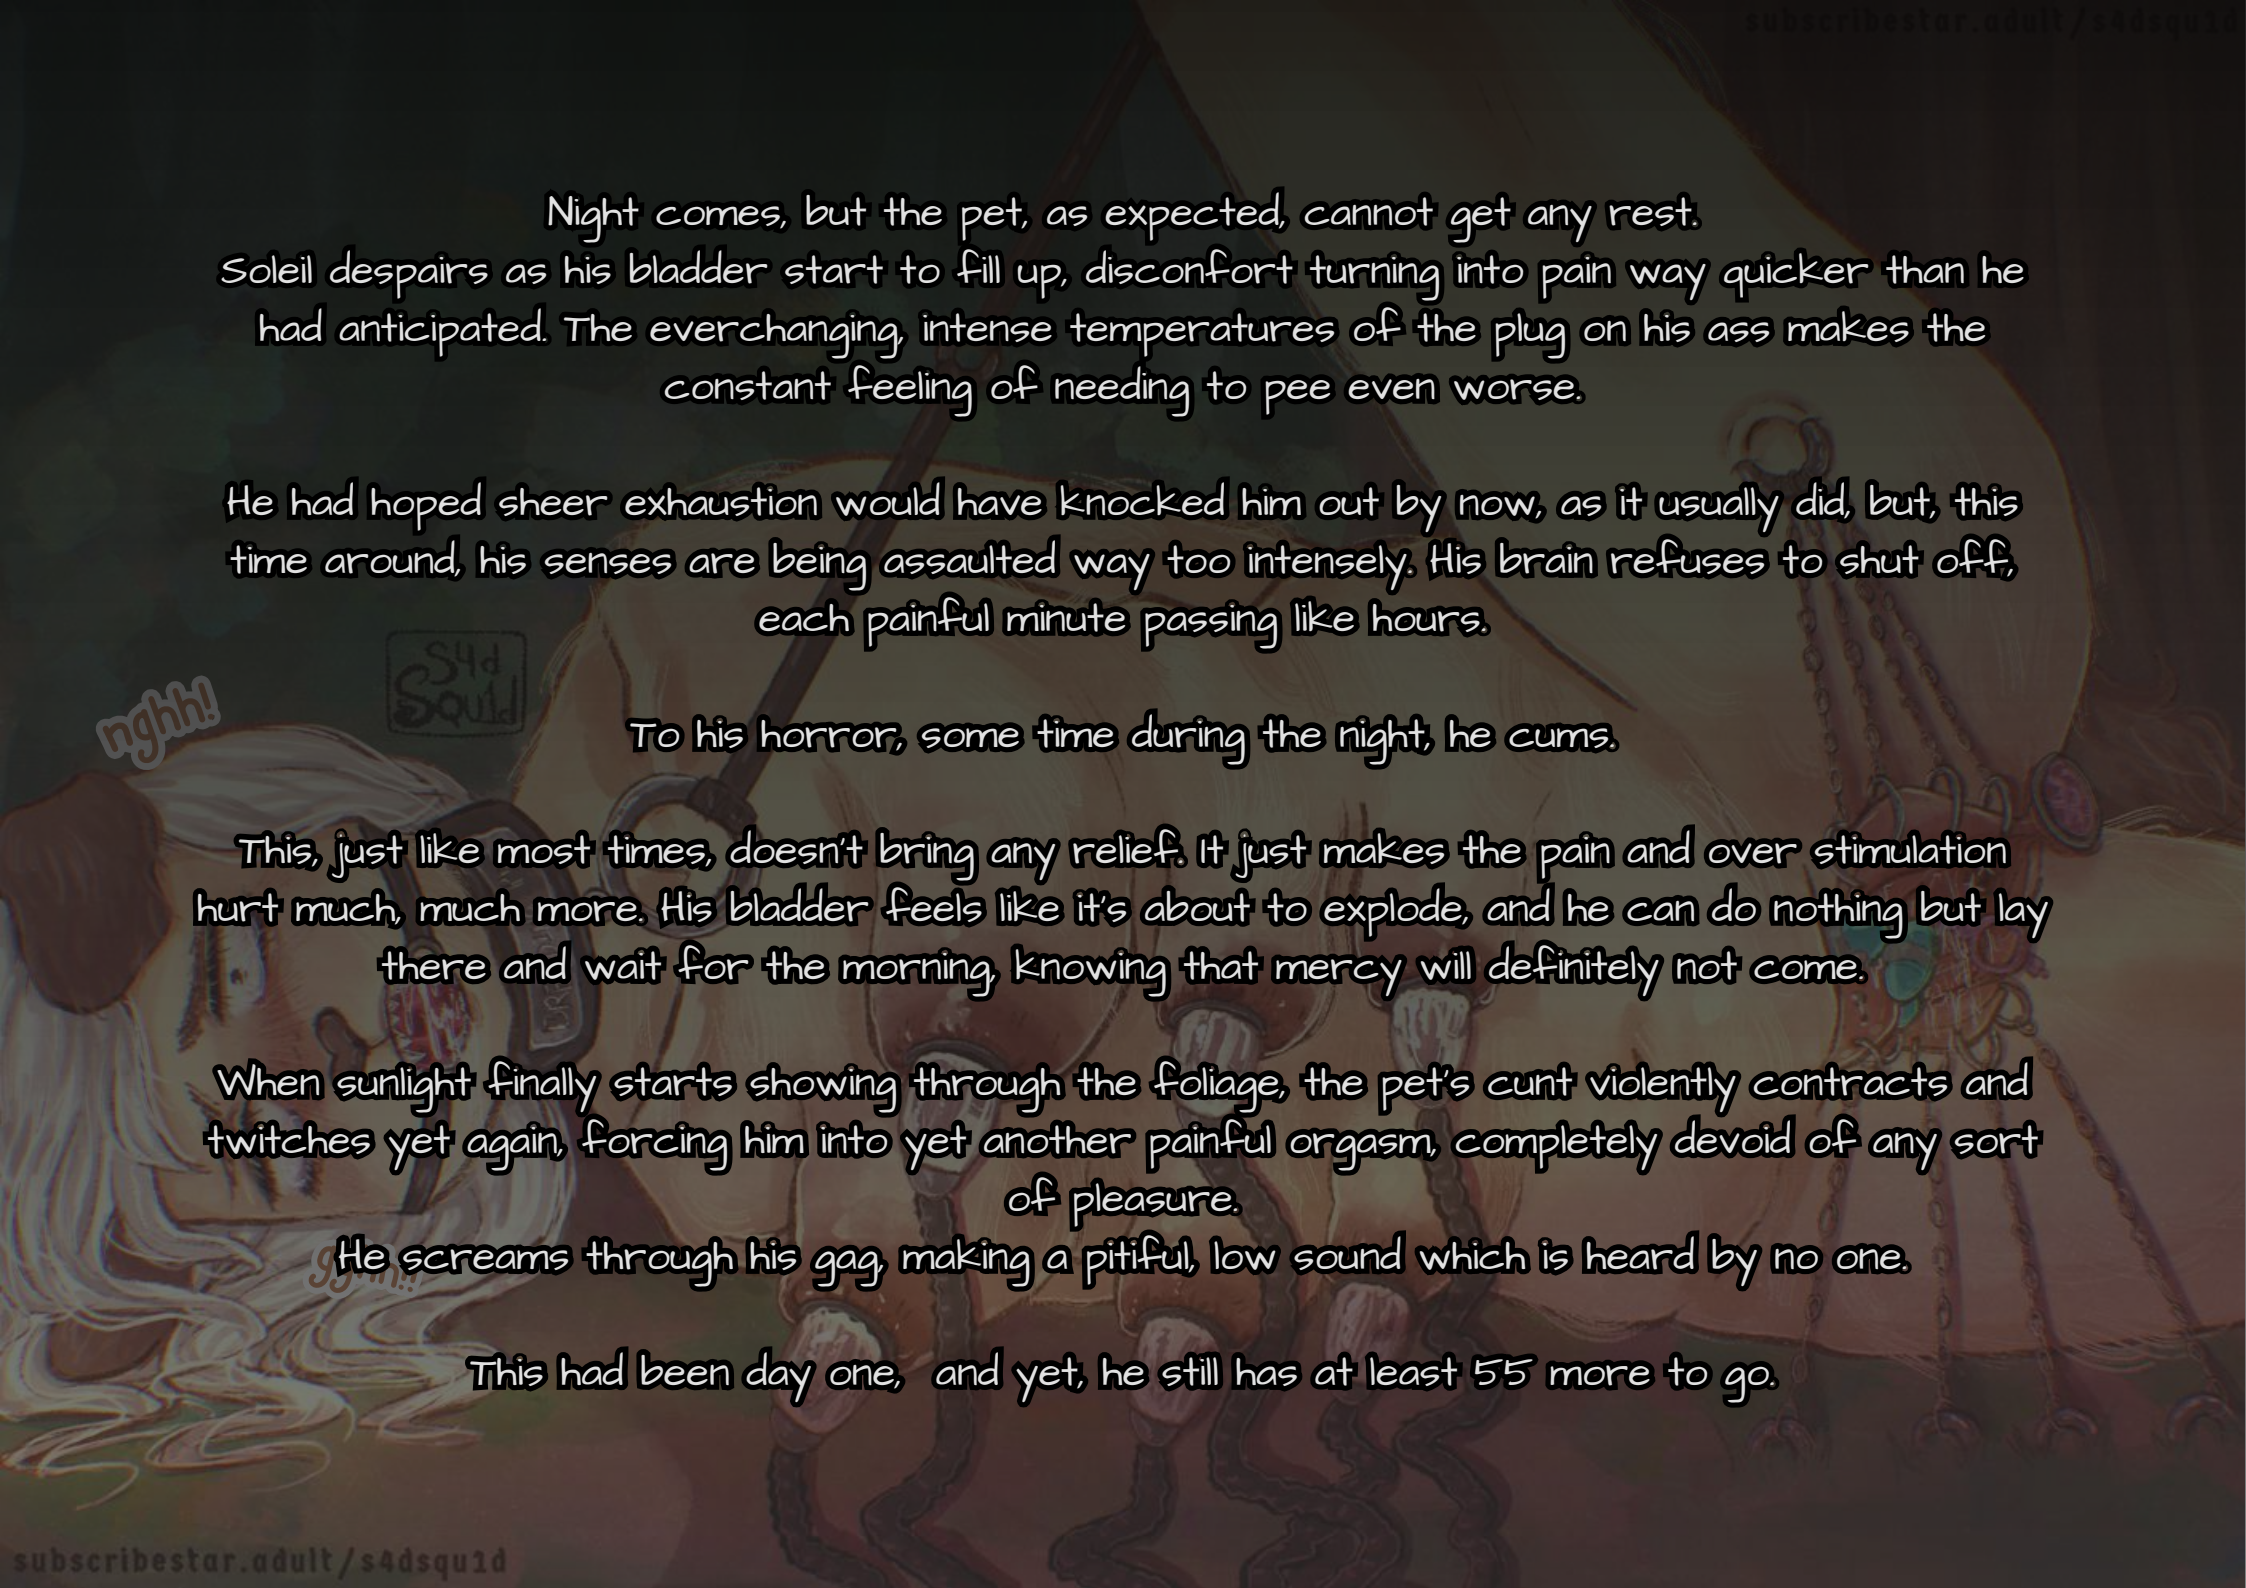

Before the day ends, many wolves pass by him, none of them particularly caring about his plight.

When someone does interact with Soleil, it's to openly mock him and talk about what a horrible pet he is and how he deserves even worse punishment, or to further add to his torment.

They spit in his face and cunt, pull at his piercings, twist and flick his clit, hoping to cause as much pain as possible, laughing every time he yelps or whines. The wolves rub their hind paws full of dirt on his exposed, overstimulated genitals, pushing the piercings and stitching around painfully and making the rod in his urethra dig even deeper into him.

He doesn't dare hope the night will bring any significant relief from the pain itself, but being able to escape the added humiliation from the crowd might be a little bit of an improvement.

Night comes, but the pet, as expected, cannot get any rest. Soleil despairs as his bladder start to fill up, discomfort turning into pain way quicker than he had anticipated. The everchanging, intense temperatures of the plug on his ass makes the constant feeling of needing to pee even worse.

He had hoped sheer exhaustion would have knocked him out by now, as it usually did, but, this time around, his senses are being assaulted way too intensely. His brain refuses to shut off, each painful minute passing like hours.

To his horror, some time during the night, he cums.

This, just like most times, doesn't bring any relief. It just makes the pain and over stimulation hurt much, much more. His bladder feels like it's about to explode, and he can do nothing but lay there and wait for the morning, knowing that mercy will definitely not come.

When sunlight finally starts showing through the foliage, the pet's cunt violently contracts and twitches yet again, forcing him into yet another painful orgasm, completely devoid of any sort of pleasure.

He screams through his gag, making a pitiful, low sound which is heard by no one.

This had been day one, and yet, he still has at least 55 more to go.

The same wolves arrive some time during the morning, just as Soleil is going through yet another excruciating orgasm. He had long lost count of how many of those he had had to go through, he only knows that each time, the pain gets worse and worse. To his dismay, this time, his fluids spray out of him like a fountain.

Ohhh, enjoying yourself, pet?

I think this is a sign we should make your punishment even worse!
This is supposed to be nothing but awful for you!!

He shakes his head, trying desperately to convey that no, he is not feeling good at all!! Of course, they completely ignore it.

nhhghh!!

S4d
Squid

Yeah, he's right!

arghh!!

They, push the rod as deep as it will go and leave the pet alone, free for any passerbies to abuse yet again.

After the wolves are done with their morning affairs, they come back to check on Soleil before they leave to hunt for lunch. Soleil still hadn't leaked at all so, in order to speed up the process, they decide to finally help the pet a bit.

Well, their version of help, at least...

They step on the pet's belly, right where his urethra is, forcing it further and further into him until the yellow liquid finally starts to leak out of his urethra, running down his clit and into his thigh fur.

arf arf

nghhhh...

This is, of course, is extremely painful. The pet squirms, hurting himself more and more as the pressure in his bladder exponentially increases, the tiny bit of urine coming out barely making a dent on the sheer volume of liquid inside of him.

Even after they're done, Soleil's bladder is far from empty. The wolves, however, decide it had been good enough. They had just wanted to torment the pet a bit before proceeding to the next part of the punishment, anyway. They roughly clean the pet before inserting another, identical rod inside of him. He yelps and tries to whithe away, but it's in vain. Before he can fully process the forceful stretching of his poor urethra, yet another one is put in.

To his dismay, three thick rods are just the beginning. After a bit of pushing and stretching, a fourth is inserted. Soleil growls and winces, hoping against hope to get away, to stop the searing, tearing pain, but to no avail. As if to punish him, a fifth one is forcefully shoved inside of Soleil.

His vision grows dark and for a moment, he hopes he will faint, but, to his frustration, he soon awakens to the same hell.

C'mon, you gotta endure it, pet!
We need to stretch you enough if we want you to have another fuckhole~

Oh, I think it's the first time we tell him what we're doing, haha.

Congratulations, you'll be the first pet with four usable holes!

Soleil is horrified. He can do nothing but to accept the torment and the permanent changes made to his body without his consent. These wolves own him, his only use is to give them pups and satisfy their cocks. What he wants does not matter, and it never will. He can't even die to escape this, he will be forced to serve them until his body gives out. After holding it out for so long, he finally starts sobbing.

ohhh, boo fucking hoo!!
You're a pet!

Your job is to endure everything we do to you and be thankful we still allow you to eat our leftovers!
Stop crying like a spoiled brat!!

They notice his tears and become extremely angry, immediately proceeding to belittle and mock the pet. All while playing around with the rods, stretching his urethra further, to the point he is now leaking again, this time without any added pressure.

Exactly! If you didn't want to be punished, then you should have cared about your puppies and acted like a good pet who knows their place!
That place being BELOW your puppies! Their well-being and life matter!

You, on the other hand, are just a replaceable pet, a means to an end!

If you really didn't want to be a pet, you shouldn't have come into our forest!
You can say you were just foraging because there was little in your side but you knew the consequences!

Yeah, you knew what happens to dogs who go into our territory and steal from us, now you'll have to endure it!

that's called taking responsibility for your own actions!

S4d Squid

pwaah!!
ghhhhh!!
*pant* *pant*

The pet tries to stifle his cries, but fails.

Not only do the sobs cause more pain from the constant movement, it also makes the wolves words more and more vicious, their movements rougher, hurting him as much as they can. Despite his wants, his very body betrays him and keeps on cumming multiple times a day. This it not only painful, but it also amuses the wolves, usually leading to more mocking and even more intense torture.

Two weeks pass.

Each day, a new rod is added. Trainers and passerbies alike playing around with them, twisting and pushing them apart in order to stretch his urethra as much as possible.

The torment on his clit and ass, of course, never stops, the only semblance of relief he has is the fact that he is now so loose that his bladder is incapable of filling up again.

His gag is just removed once a day, where he is forced to eat rancid meat and overripe fruit topped with copious amounts of wolf cum and drink a gallon of water mixed with pee. He has no choice but to eat it, the only thing he can pick is if he will eat it by himself or have it forcefully shoved down his throat.

Soleil quickly learns to chose the first option.

He tries using this opportunity to beg.

Once.

As punishment, all the rods are removed and re-inserted after being coated in hot sauce.

Needless to say, he no longer utters a single word during feeding time again.

Eventually, they decide it is time to remove the rods and check on the pet's progress, to see if his urethra had already become big enough to take a wolf's cock. Thick fingers are inserted inside of him, with no regards to his pain, moving around and scissoring what once had been a thin, little urethra.

Surprisingly, it seems his extra hole is ready! Of course, it still tears a bit when fucked because it's so new, so, he might bleed if the user has a particularly big knot. This, of course, matters little to the wolves. As long as it feels good for them, they do not care about the pet.

You see, wolves have long been getting increasingly bored with their pets due to them getting looser and looser with time. The most complicated part is that, when the pets get to that point, the wolves had already grown too attached to them (yes, even the public ones somehow), thus, didn't want to inflict so much pain into the poor things. So, they just kept being used loose at they were.

*pant pant*

nhhgg

Ooooh, he's ready alright~
Damn, even tighter than I expected!

Well, you have fun with his pee hole, I'll just use his regular one once I remove the stitches.

The leaky pee puts me off a bit...

Soleil, however, is relatively new. Not only that, his mind had never never fully been broken, keeping him defiant for too long. As a result, none of them has any affection for him, not even his previous owner. To make things even worse, the pet had done something unforgivable in their eyes, which was to not putting his puppies above himself, unconditionally. No one will feel bad for hurting this one, no matter how bad it gets.

Finally, they have a dog they can turn into a perfect Public Breeding Pet without feeling any guilt.

As if he hadn't been doomed enough, his incredibly high fertility rate and huge milk output means he is absolutely perfect for the job. They'll make sure he lasts as long as possible and will not let him die easily.

His cunt, urethra and anus will be kept as tight as possible, stitching them up regularly to fix any excessive stretching. This will make sure every wolf that uses him will have immense pleasure.

Sadly for him, this also means that every use will come with searing pain. Due to all the forced changes in his body and the wolves' desire to only fuck extremely tight holes, he can no longer feel any pleasure during intercourse, just agony.

To make the pet's holes even better for themselves, the wolves also decide to continue the injections on his clit, making it even more sensitive to the point where it will cum with the lightest of touches. They intend to use this to force the pet into cumming multiple times, all while their cocks are deep inside of him, his contracting insides massaging their members and giving them otherworldly orgasms.

ghhhhh!!

nnoo!!

Pwaah!!

The piercings look great on his teats!
can he still get milked like this though?

Yea, don't worry!

It usually hurts a bit more due to the constant pulling but he's a pet so it doesn't really matter.

Of course, due to how much he has been stretched, stitched and abused, Soleil's own orgasms now cause him nothing but extreme pain.

Despite everything, he is still expected to fulfill his main duty as a breeding pet, carrying many wolf pups as he can. He continues to get knocked up laughably easily, to the point where he is never not pregnant for more than a month. This makes his breasts increase even more in size.

His labor and birth processes, however, never get any easier. Because his cunt is always sewn extremely tight, for the pups to come out, they need to rip him open again and again.

Of course, it's important that he keeps being held in contempt, so, every day, he (and all wolves) are reminded of what he has done.

They tell him that he wouldn't have been picked for this role if he had not being selfish and endangered his puppies, that he had only become a pet due to his own actions, that he is a thief and selfish, horrible person.

S4d Squid

nggh!

Your punishment is still not over, pet!
We'll keep you in this position until the 8 weeks are up!
Everyone will be able to test out your new hole during this time~

Just leaving you like that doesn't seem like good enough punishment, thought.

I mean, you almost killed your babies!!

Oh, I know!!

I'll make sure to smear not sauce on your clit and inside your stitched up cunt multiple times a day~!

gghh!!

Finally, they make sure he knows that everything that has happened to him is his own doing and that he should be thankful he is still even allowed to have a clit. Although, that likely wont be for long, considering how much contempt they have managed to breed for the poor dog.

With that, Soleil's life becomes absolute hell.

Forever.

He is not even allowed to die.

Until the end of his life, he will be forced to use his body to give pleasure to hundreds, maybe thousands of wolves, all while being constantly in pain, unable to feel good at all.

All he will ever eat again will be tainted by either cum or piss.

Even if he, by a miracle, escapes, his body has been permanently changed, to his detriment, to the whims of the wolves.

His once extremely small breasts, which already made him dysphoric and self-conscious, had grown to enormous sizes, his aureola darkening, his nipples turning into incredibly long teats, impossible to conceal, even with clothing.

His clit, even if he gets to keep it, is completely ruined. It's so big and sensitive he would no longer be able to wear clothes. His cunt has been torn open so much all the scar tissue makes it impossible to fix it in a way that using it will not hurt him.

Soleil's captors have permanently denied him sexual pleasure, for the rest of his life, just to better fit their own needs for pleasure.

Author's note:

...can you tell I've been having a thing for hot sauce this week? LOL

I guess i finished the story in an extremely sad note, poor Soleil ٩_٩. It kinda makes me want to write a sequel where the dog village comes and rescues the pets Sol gets to kill at least one wolf in his escape. Maybe he even finds out ways to revert some things and gets to live a normal, happy life?????

Actually, I kinda really like this, it's going in the idea vault, LOL.

Sorry for not writing much on this section this time around, I'm already quite exhausted, since I really wanted to finish this set haha.

Anyway, as always, I do not endorse anything shown here, this is just fiction, don't try to do any of this in real life or use anything from this text to justify harm done to real living beings.

Thank you for all the support! <3
