Soleil is one of many angels who were betrayed by their own people and sold off to demons to serve as breeding stock.

Demons can't reproduce on their own, so they resorted to kidnapping angels to fulfill this need. Of course, this wasn't taken kindly by them, so a war broke out.

Eventually, they reached an agreement. If they willingly sent a certain amount of angels their way, the demons would leave the rest of them alone.

And that's how poor Soleil ended up as merchandise.

He used to cover himself all the way from his wrists to his ankles, so being exposed and with his legs forcibly spread open is quite distressing for the angel.

This is not helped that the fact that the collar on his neck magically weakens his muscles, so he can't even struggle.

Eventually, after what seemed like an entire day, someone does take interest in him and decides to test him out

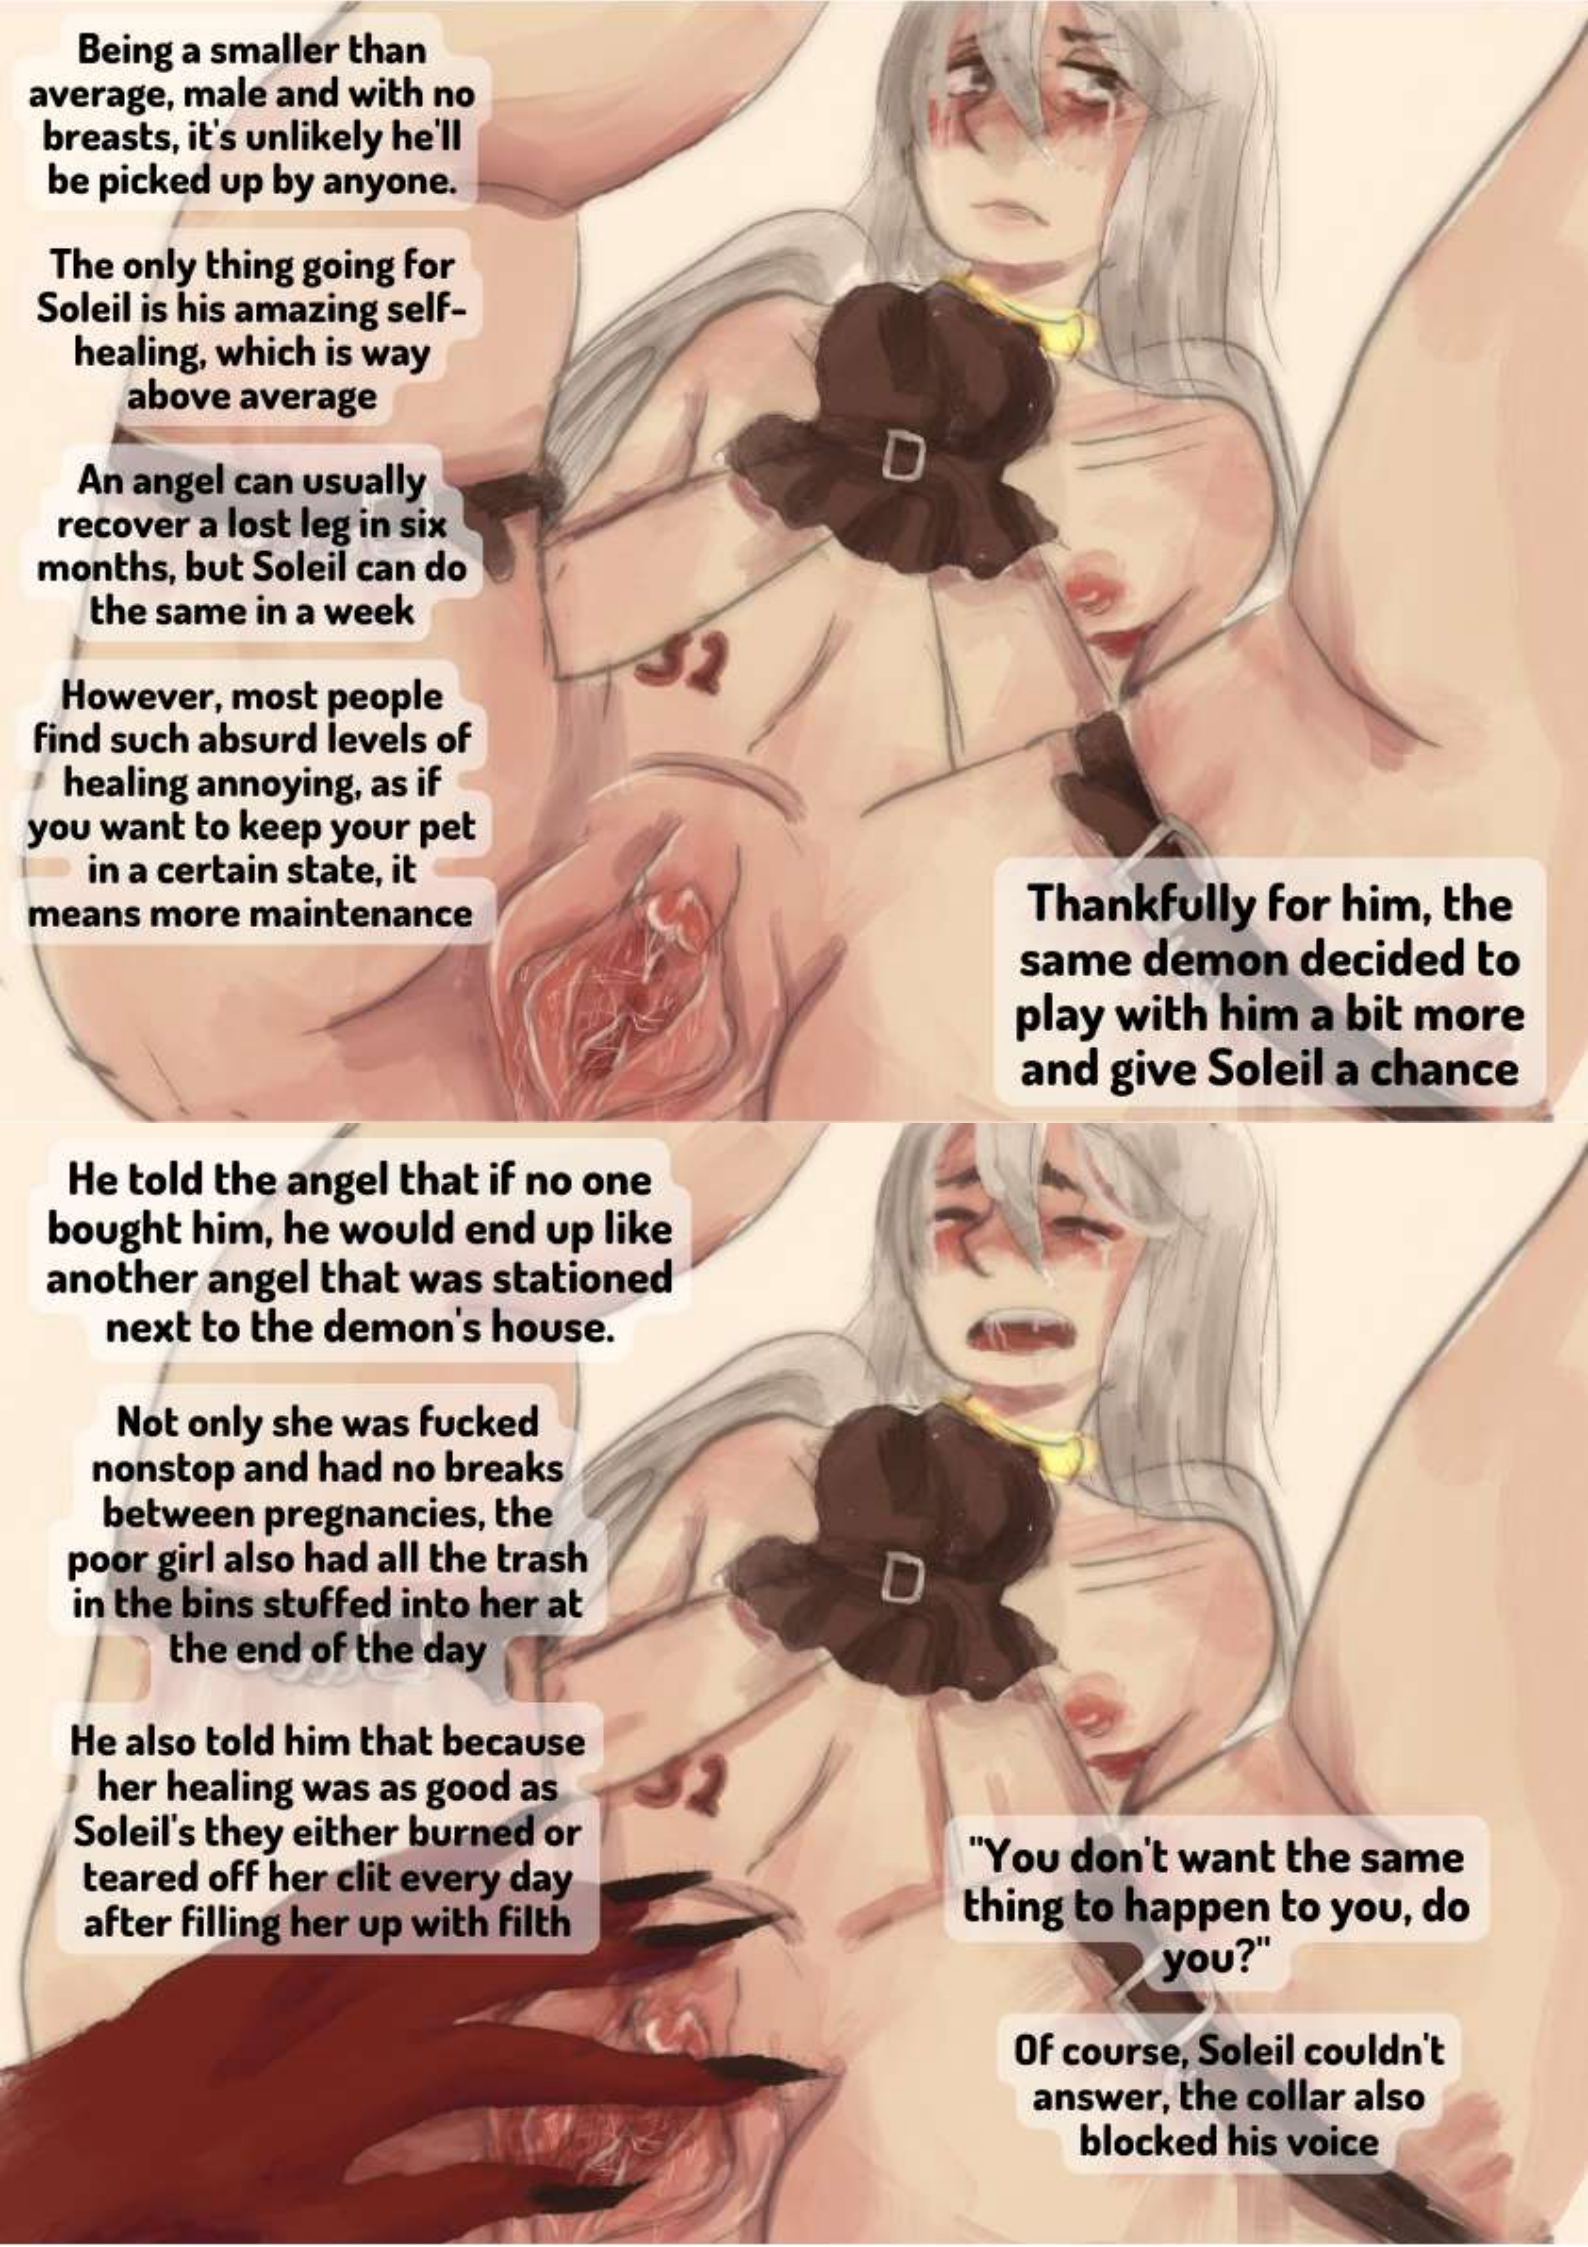

Usually most demons keep one or two angels as personal pets.

They're pretty easy to care for since their self-healing abilities are good enough to restore any damage done to them, including regrowing limbs and organs if needed

He doesn't know it yet, but if he doesn't get sold, he will be assigned to the public relief system, which is just a fancy way of saying he'll be stationed at a local restroom to be used by anyone

Pet angels are readily accessible this day and age, so the public ones are only ever used by delinquents and leftovers of society, often in the worst way imaginable.

Being a smaller than average, male and with no breasts, it's unlikely he'll be picked up by anyone.

The only thing going for Soleil is his amazing self-healing, which is way above average

An angel can usually recover a lost leg in six months, but Soleil can do the same in a week

However, most people find such absurd levels of healing annoying, as if you want to keep your pet in a certain state, it means more maintenance

Thankfully for him, the same demon decided to play with him a bit more and give Soleil a chance

He told the angel that if no one bought him, he would end up like another angel that was stationed next to the demon's house.

Not only she was fucked nonstop and had no breaks between pregnancies, the poor girl also had all the trash in the bins stuffed into her at the end of the day

He also told him that because her healing was as good as Soleil's they either burned or teared off her clit every day after filling her up with filth

"You don't want the same thing to happen to you, do you?"

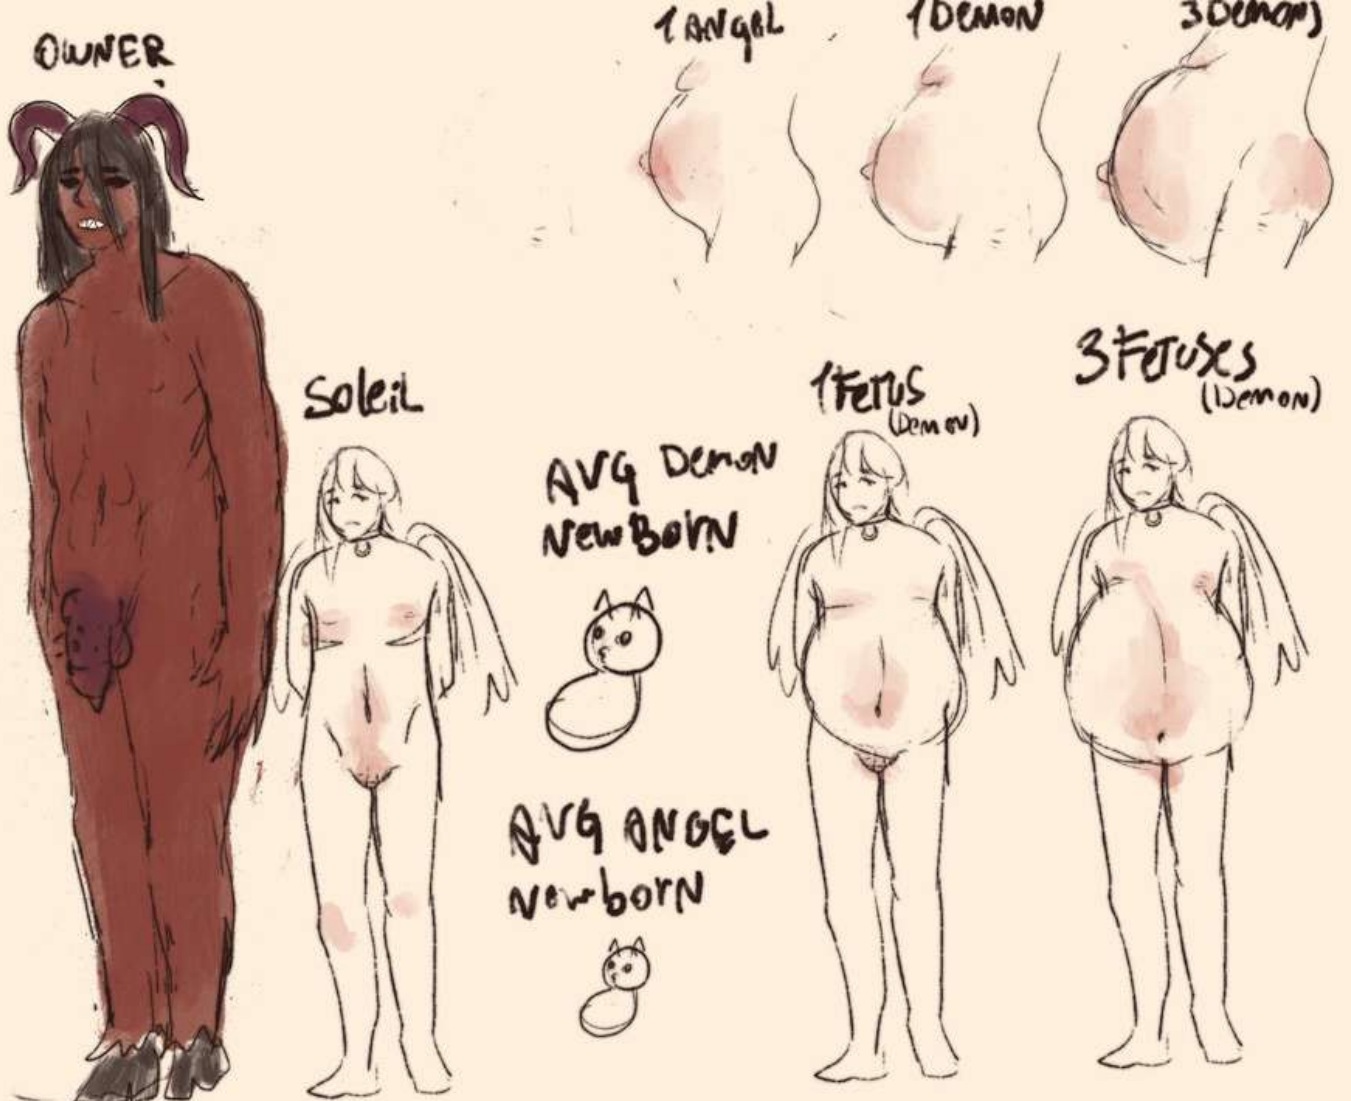

Of course, Soleil couldn't answer, the collar also blocked his voice

If the angel was able to cum in under a minute he would buy him

The market would close in five minutes and, if he didn't buy him, surely no one else would

His choice was between throwing away any pride left, submitting and cumming by the hands of a demon, while naked and in the middle of a crowded market, or facing a fate possibly worse than death

It wasn't a hard choice, but the angel was afraid the he wouldn't be able to make it regardless

In the end, Soleil did cum by the Demon's hand, but his time was already up

However, the Demon (let's call him Amon) thought his reactions were quite adorable.

He had been looking for a new pet for a while and this angel seemed like it would be a good enough fit.

Most angels tend to be quite defiant, but considering how fast Soleil gave into his will, he felt he could actually break and reshape him into an obedient pet.

So, after payment, he was branded and wrapped nice and tight into a small, proper box for angel transportation.

The collar is very good at restricting most movements, but because it's not as reliable with fingers and toes, it's safest to physically restrain these parts

Amon set the angel in his living room, on top of a barely used table. After a bit of fidgeting and improvising, he found a position where Soleil would be usable but also give him a nice view of his pet's body

"Well, let's hope you don't make me regret buying you"

"Remember, I can still give you to the public facilities if you aren't a good enough pet"

He wasn't lying, Soleil was cheap enough that returning him would be less of a headache than trying too hard to train him.

Male angels are usually way more trouble than they're worth, as they're much smaller than the females (thus a pain to take care of during pregnancy) and when that does happen, their chests tend to get deformed, especially if you intend to milk them.

Because angels heal so easily and well, most customization and maintenance was done by their owners

If anything goes to bad, they can always take them to a vet, but it's unlikely they'll suffer any permanent damage anyway

"Not sure if you're supposed to bleed this much, I should double check the manual"

Piercings and brandings are the most common type of customization.

Getting their pussies permanently spread via rings attached to string was popular in the past, but since it's become the startart for public relief pets, it has fallen out of fashion

Amon tightened up Soleil's collar to restrict his breathing. He hoped it would made the sounds coming out of his pet nicer to hear.

"You can actually use your voice now, Sol, so stop whimpering"

"nngg..."

Of course, he also adjusted the collar's setting to let out his pet use his voice, while still blocking his ability to talk

On that note, he also left his movements completely blocked and upped the nervous system sensibility to 100%

He thought about adding some rings to the angel's nipples (he had, in fact, bought them), but decided to wait it out, as he found Soleil's inverted nipples quite cute

Another important step of pet ownership is to actually make them usable.

"Yeah, I did take a look at your file, your name is quite cute"

"However, I'd rather call you Sol. Remember that it's your new name, ok? Soleil is cute but it's a bit too long"

"And I don't feel like coming up with something else"

Angel's holes don't naturally feel the best if they aren't processed. They rip too easily and just don't have a nice enough texture

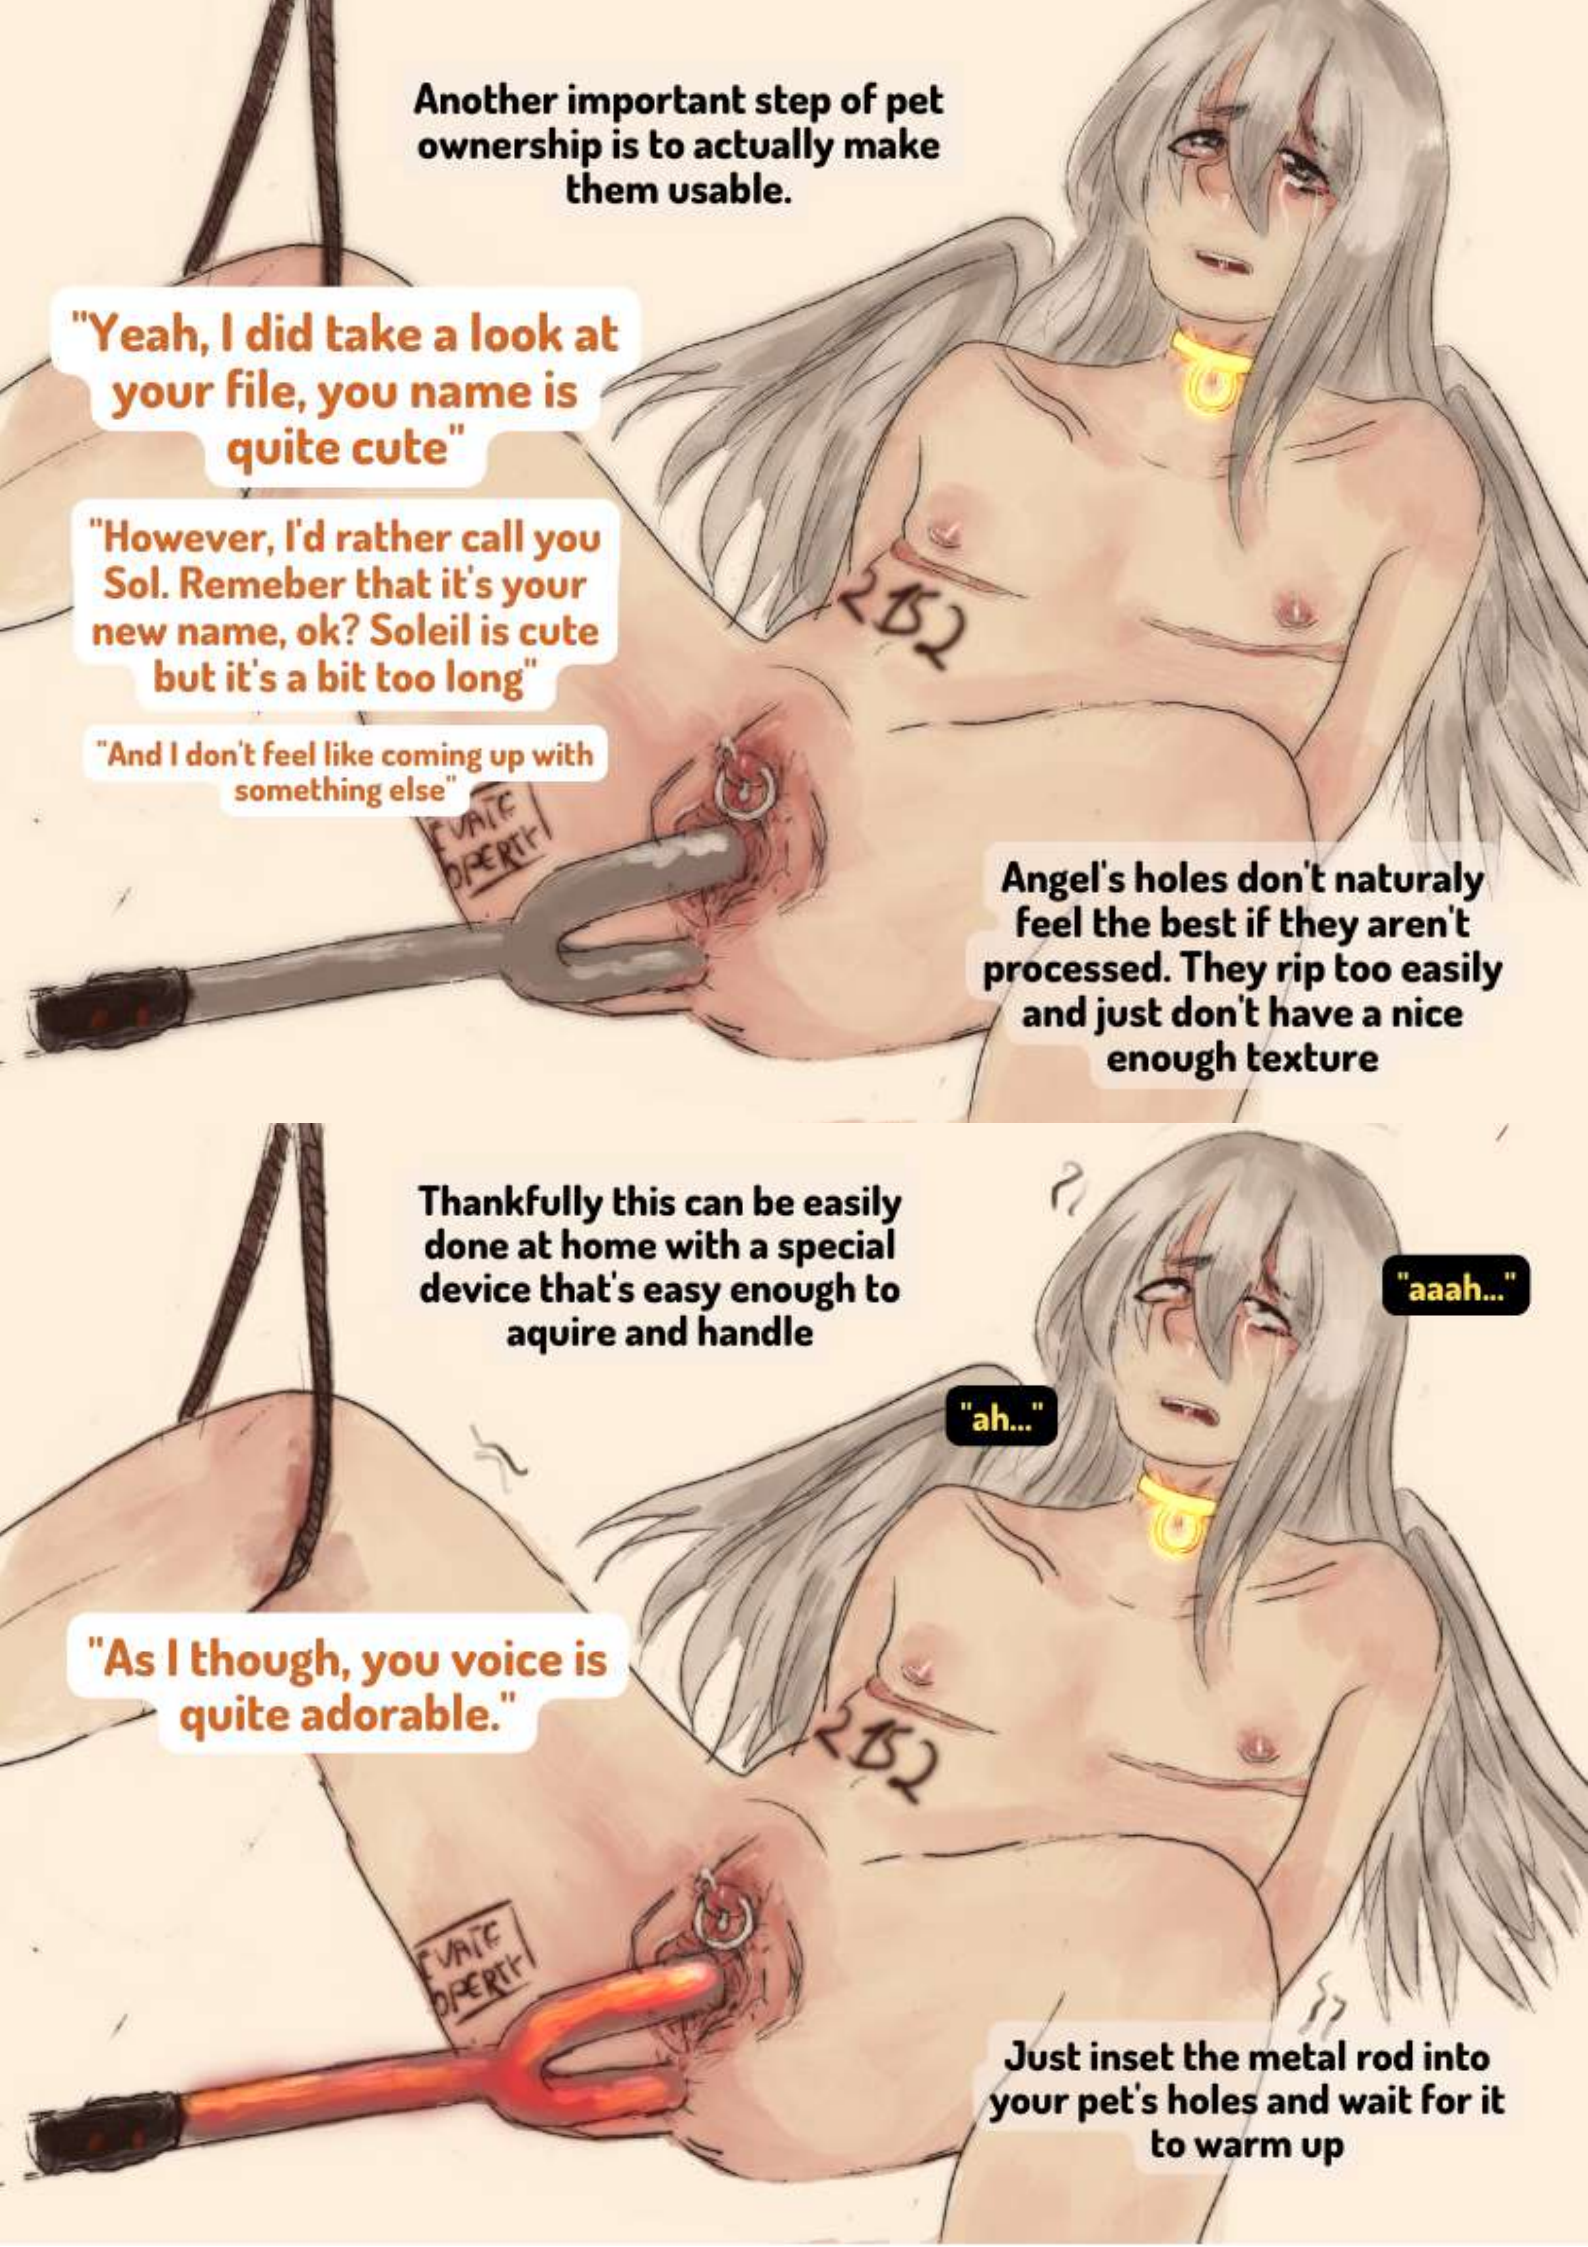

Thankfully this can be easily done at home with a special device that's easy enough to acquire and handle

"ah..."

"aaah..."

"As I thought, your voice is quite adorable."

Just insert the metal rod into your pet's holes and wait for it to warm up

Once you see smoke come out, you can push it in as far as you can. This should cover their whole rectum and go all the way to their cervix.

As your pet gets used, you might need to upgrade to thicker and longer models eventually

"WAAA."

"AHAWAA."

"Just a bit longer, hang in there-"

While burning away their insides, the rod also creates a thick layer of rubbery skin, fragile enough to still bleed but resistant enough not to be torn apart by a stronger thrust

This may seem cruel, but it's also good for the angel. Soleil would surely suffer way worse every time Amon used him if his nerves weren't burned off

"gghh"

"You've completely lost any sense of shame, haven't you?"

"You were born to be a pet after all"

For most angels, this is usually done every 7-15 days

Because Soleil's healing was way too good, it meant both his branding and hole processing would need to be done on a daily process

With current magical advancements, this whole process can be done without harming your pet's glands, so they can still get nice and wet even after being scorched

"nng!!"

"aagh!!"

"No need to be this desperate, my little Sol, I've bred smaller angels, you'll be fine"

Demons penises aren't actually that large compared to their size, but Soleil being a mere 150cm and Amon being almost 3meter high, it sure feel that way to the small angel

The spike at the head of a demon's penis has the function of opening up an angel's cervix

"aah!.."

"Stop being a baby, I'm being way nicer than I need to. Do you think anyone would give the amount consideration I give you if you were public relief angel?"

"Do you want me to change my mind and send you there?"

"See, I'm even going in super slow, just for you."

"You should be grateful you got such a nice owner"

The whole cock must go inside of their uterus, as their vaginal canal is too small to fit even half of it

"You feel so nice, little Sol!"

"Don't the spikes scratching your walls feel good?"

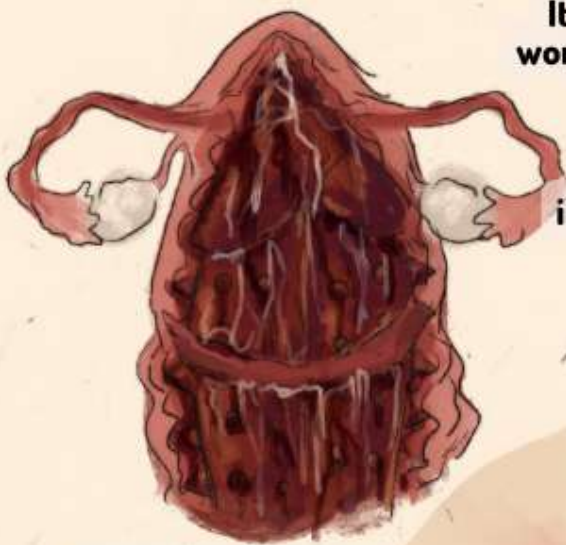

All pet angels are considered virgins until they're first used by a demon, it doesn't matter if they've had sex with another angel or not.

This is because a chemical in their sperm permanently changes the shape of their wombs after their first use. So virginity, in this case, refers to the shape of their uterus.

It seems even Soleil's whole womb is too small for the whole length of Amon's cock.

He'll have to force himself inside with a bit more force if he wants to knot his pet.

"I told you not to complain, but that doesn't mean I don't want to hear your screams"

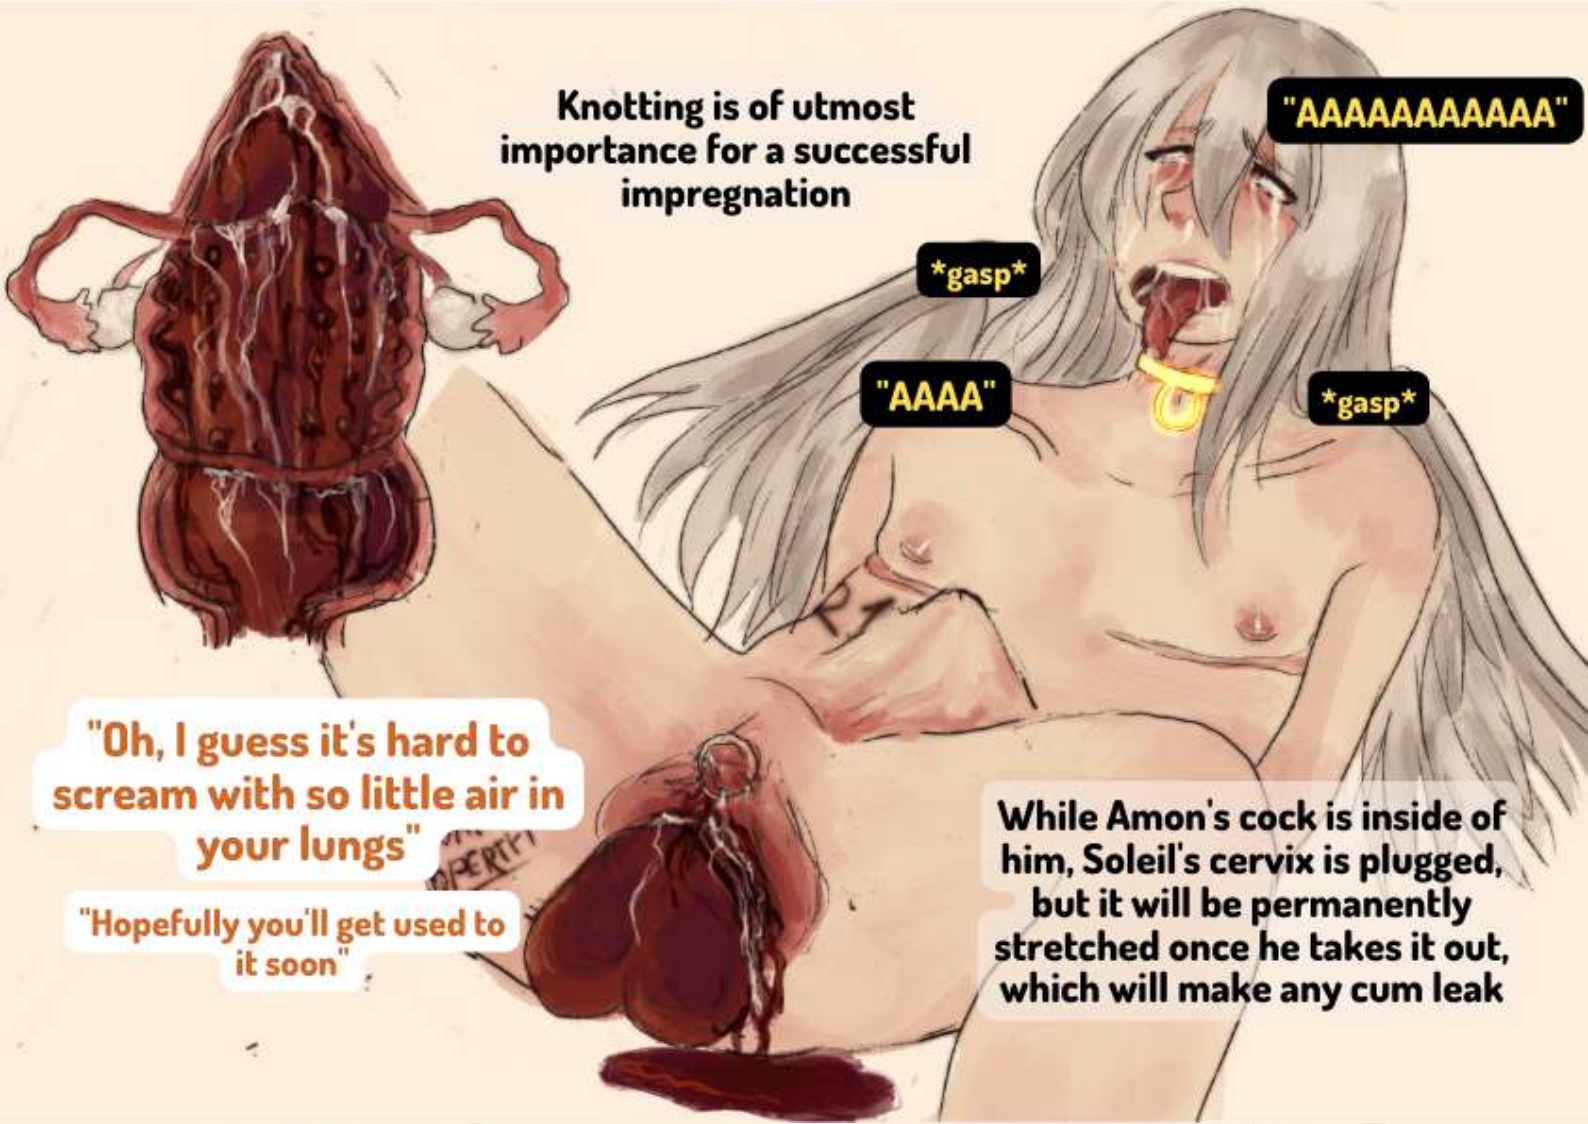

"Can't expect too much intelligence from a pet anyway"

"Don't worry Sol, I'll teach you. You'll be a great pet in no time~"

"nnng"

Knotting is of utmost importance for a successful impregnation

"AAAAAAAAAAAA"

*gasp***

"AAAA"

*gasp***

"Oh, I guess it's hard to scream with so little air in your lungs"

"Hopefully you'll get used to it soon"

While Amon's cock is inside of him, Soleil's cervix is plugged, but it will be permanently stretched once he takes it out, which will make any cum leak

But, if the ejaculation happens deep enough, some of it will stay stuck in their fallopian tubes, making fecundation much easier

"ugh.."

"You belly inflating with my cum is quite adorable."

"I have a feeling you'll look lovely with cute demon babies inside of you too"

To make sure this happens, demons also cum quite a lot and for a long time

As it's clearly visible, Soleil's womb and vagina is already starting to take new shapes, better suited for his owner's cock

"haaa.."

*gasp*

"Congratulations on your first time with a demon, Sol"

"Let's hope for many more to come, right?"

The angel has plenty of cum stored in his tubes too. Not only can demon sperm survive for a whole week inside of them, it also releases an ovulation inducing hormone

Which is why it's the norm for pets to get pregnant with just one load, which means, Soleil's belly will start growing pretty soon.

*pant*

*pant*

*pant*

*gasp*

"Well, that was nice, and I feel you did behave quite well."

Demon fetuses are way bigger than angel's, so it won't be long before he starts showing

On that note, the only way to abort a demon pregnancy or cause an angel to miscarry is to kill the carrier

They're extremely resistant little babies

"...waaa"

"I think you deserve a reward, Sol!"

"I'll leave this wand on right on your clit while I leave for work, ok?"

However, your pet's health gets way more fragile during pregnancy, especially if they're small like Sol, so it's important to take care of them so they don't die and take the babies with them :[

"I'll set up your collar to allow orgasms too. Cum as many times as you want!"

*gasp*

*pant*

"Ah don't worry, I'll use the camera to check on you during breaks, so don't feel lonely now"

There are many ways to train your pet angel, and the way to do it will differ depending on your goal

Amon wants a very obedient, loyal and eager pet, so he's using plenty of positive reinforcement!

*pant*

"WAAAH"

It seemd his pet is enjoying his rewards, he's so wet he made a small puddle. This will surely please his owner.

It seemed Sol even got used to relieving himself on his spot ahead. He truly is a nice pet.

"NNNGGG"

*pant*

Lot of angels are reluctant to do so, as they still hold the belief they should use toilets, and it can be quite hard to coax them into understanding that only people get to use toilets.

*gasp*

As angels, they aren't people, they're pets

It seemed Soleil was much easier to train than expected. His owner was glad to have purchased him.

"haaaa"

*pant*

"haaaa"

"Hello, Sol, I'm back! Did you have a nice evening?"

"Oh, you're smiling for me already? How adorable"

"I'll take that as a yes, then"

Amon felt confident enough to advance Sol to the next step of his training. There was a weekend ahead so he could me more hand-on with his pet's training

Soleil still had to learn how enjoy pain properly, but considering that many angels are equally horrible are handling both pain and pleasure, half the battle was already won already

He couldn't wait to be able to turn of the angel's speaking block and hear him begging for his cock.

Finally, it was time to proceed with Sol's training

Amon tweaked the settings of his collar to allow his some movement. He wanted his pet to show obedience by keeping one of his legs up himself.

"Remember Sol, good pets obey. You don't want to be a bad pet, do you?"

Sol knew what happened to bad pets. Bad pets are sent away and become public property. Good pets get to have a nice owner. He had to be a good pet, no matter what.

Amon's goal for today was to get his angel to be used to the pain. The end goal was to scramble his brain enough that he wouldn't be able to tell pain from pleasure anymore, but for now, one step at a time

"mm..."

The angel's collar would be a great help in this process. It has a neat feature where their owner can freely change how much of each sensation their pet would feel.

There's also an orgasm blocking functions, although it would be useless on today's training.

Right now, he wanted Sol to feel pain. To become familiar with it. It wasn't expected that he would get even close to cumming.

"I'm going to hurt you, but you must hold your legs in place. Do you understand?"

"gaah.."

"Good."

"haaa..."

Sol didn't like the pain, but it wasn't as bad as taking demon cock. And, as he felt any pleasure slowly dwindling, so did the guilt he felt for feeling any enjoyment in this situation. For now, he just needed to focus on being a good pet and making his owner happy

After being spanked for so long, the pain is starting to become too much. He's struggling to keep his leg in place. Everything that touches his skin now hurts.

"Ah, you're still going strong! You are such a well behaved little pet!"

"nngg..."

The vibrator on his nipple felt like sandpaper, the rope on his ankle seemed to be made of glass shards and Amon's hands on his cheeks were so warm that it felt it burned him.

His hand that clutched his thigh hurt now. His own tears running down his face were as if they were cutting his skin

He was thankful that the vibrator was removed, but the cigarette burns felt just as awful, if not worse. If he didn't know better, he would think his owner was burning his very bones.

Sol just didn't understand why his cunt was getting wet from all this. Eventually, he understood it wasn't the pain making him wet, but his master's words of praise!

"If you endure it until the end, I'll even give you a reward!"

The angel thought those burns would feel the same as the others. They were painful, but it was a pain he was growing used to. This was an everyday affair, after all.

"waaah..."

so you will never suffer. No

You'll finally fulfill your role and become truly happy!"

The demon caressed his

"This is good. It means we're on the right track"

"We are done for today, morning, that is an order."

"Uhm, kind of. You're still being trained, but I'll change up your collar so you don't feel pain now."

"uh...ok..."

"Is that how good pets answer?"

"I-uhm, Sol means, uh..."

"Th-thanks...master?"

"Yes, yes, good pet."

During this time, his main focus had been teaching his pet how to endure pain. The next step, however, was to completely re-wire Sol's brain to make it so he could no longer differentiate between pain and pleasure. Or course, the knowing how to properly adjust the modifiers the collar added to his nervous system was vital for succeeding in this.

He wanted to leave Sol there until he came at least once.

"You can barely speak, can you? Is it because it feels good?"

"hhhhng...uhm..."

Since the pet's orgasming abilities had been completely blocked during these last weeks, it didn't take long. Next steps consisted on hurting him while being stimulated and gradually increasing the pain modifiers.

Amon increased the modifier again and left his pet alone for a while.

After hearing Sol whimper and moan for almost an hour, he came back to check on his pet.

"MASTER...!! PLEASE... aaaaah... make it... STOP!! ...it's... WAAAh... weird!"

"First of all, you don't give me orders."

Amon said this while forcefully pulling the chair tied to Sol's clit.

"Seco-"
"Sol' sor-"

"Interrupt me again and I'll rip it off" He tightened his pull.

"Secondly, this is training. Endure it."

"I can't believe you came as soon as I pushed the needles in."

"Sol's sorry... sorry... so-"

"No, no, my little Sol, this is good. Great even!"

I think you deserve a bit more stimulation, right? You must be getting bored-

"...more?"

"Yes, more! You can handle it, right? You're a good pet, aren't you?"

"Sol's a good pet! Sol can... can do it..."

The machine hooked to Sol would deliver electric shocks in random intervals. It would make his muscles forcefully contract and, presumably, cause pain.

Of course, this pet was already past to point of being able to feel any.

"Once you hit 100, I'll give it to you if you beg <3"

Sol's mind was likely completely blank at this point. Amon knew that while in this state, any physical contact would feel extremely intense to his pet, so he decided to gently caress his head and wings.

"You've been such a nice pet, Sol-"

At some point, his bladder gave out and Sol peed on the floor.

Fine, I'll clean it up for you just this once. I'll even let you thank me later."

He didn't think a pet peeing themselves this much was normal, so he made a mental note to schedule a vet appointment for Sol, if only to rule out any health issues.

In the end, he couldn't really be mad at him for that, so he continued running his fingers through his pet's feathers.

After the counter on his collar finally hit 100, Amon turned off the wand and the shocking machine.

Even though he had just cleaned the floor a few minutes ago, Sol already sat on another puddle of fluids. At least this time it wasn't pee.

His wounds were mostly healed under the dry blood that still remained, but his genitals were extremely red from being so over-stimulated

"Sol... Sol wants master's cock in his womb..."

"Hmmm, how cute <3"

Amon though it was a good opportunity to check how far gone his pet's mind already was.

"Is master going to use Sol??"

"You were a bit of a pain at the start there, but you seem to have learned your place."

"Sol's... place?"

"Yes pet, your place. Your purpose. You know that, don't you?"

"Uhm... it's uhm... be master's pet?"

"Yes, Sol. What else? What is a pet's purpose?"

It was the first time he inserted himself into his pet and heard him moan in pleasure. It seems all the the time spent training Sol was paying off.

"Make master happy?"

"Uhm-uhm, what else?"

"Give him lot's of babies?"

"Correct. And...?"

"Uhm... do whatever master wants?"

"And how should you feel about this? I won't push any further if you can't answer."

"HAPPY!! Serving master must make Sol happy!!!!"

"There you go! Such a good little pet you have become-"

Sol was small enough that it was easy to see the pointy tip of his own cock through his pet's stomach.

Good thing he had a pretty resistant pet.

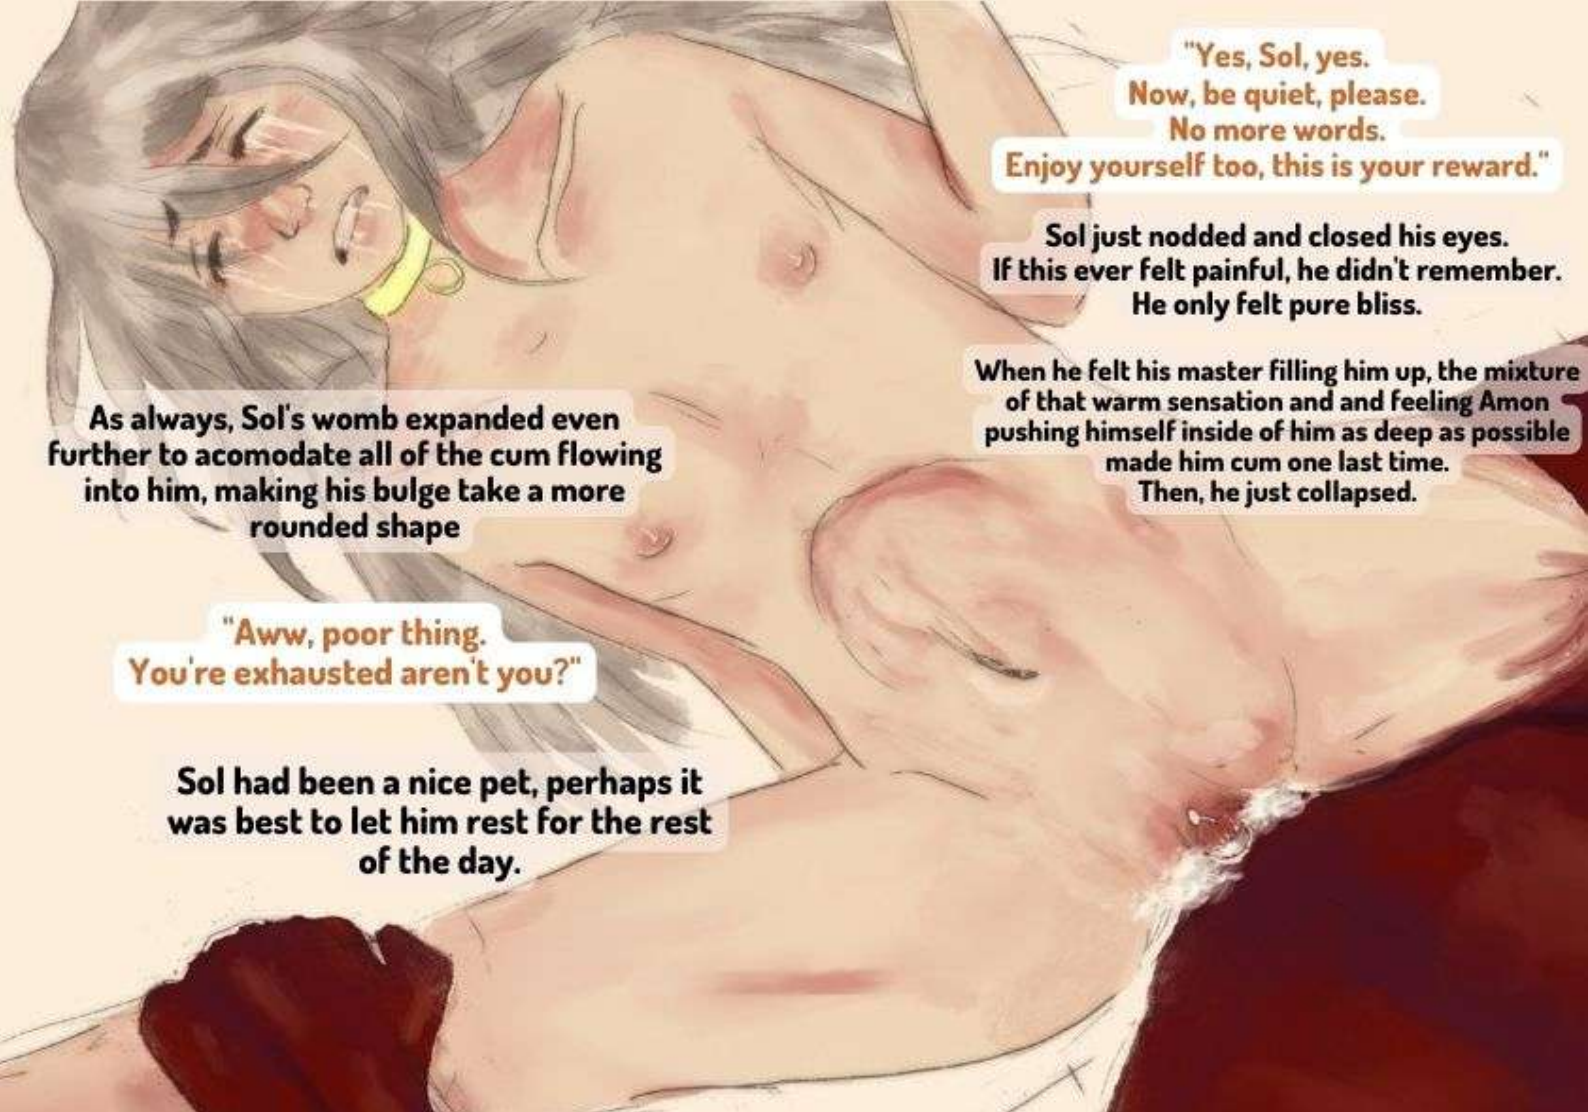

"Does... does Sol's womb make master feel good?"

"Yes, pet. Master's cock feels very nice inside of you."

"Really???"

"Of course, little Sol. You're warm, tight and make such cute little noises, of course it's good."

"That means that Sol is happy too, right???"

"Yes, Sol, yes.
Now, be quiet, please.
No more words.
Enjoy yourself too, this is your reward."

Sol just nodded and closed his eyes.
If this ever felt painful, he didn't remember.
He only felt pure bliss.

When he felt his master filling him up, the mixture of that warm sensation and and feeling Amon pushing himself inside of him as deep as possible made him cum one last time.
Then, he just collapsed.

As always, Sol's womb expanded even further to acomodate all of the cum flowing into him, making his bulge take a more rounded shape

"Aww, poor thing.
You're exhausted aren't you?"

Sol had been a nice pet, perhaps it was best to let him rest for the rest of the day.

Or course, Amon wasn't just strict with his pet's training regiment, but with his grooming as well.

He bathed him everyday.

He shaved the little body hair he had.

He brushed his teeth.

He made sure to use appropriate moisturizer for his skin, hair and feathers.

He wanted Sol no look nice, smell nice, and feel nice and his hands.

Amon though his pet looked quite adorable while he soundly slept in the bathtub

Afterwards, he brought Sol to his pet's bed. It was a small cot-like thing that was placed at the foot of his own bed.

Amon wondered how much his pet still remembered of his old life. He thought he must at least dream of it.

That was because Sol always woke up with so much fear in his eyes, it almost made him feel bad. But he knew that, eventually, he would forget. That one day, when he thought of home, he would think of this place.

The demon brushed some strands of wet hair away from his pet's face and scratched behind his ears. As weird as it was, he felt the urge to place a small kiss on Sol's forehead.

"You rest now, ok?"

He obviously didn't expect an answer.

Amon put a blanket over him and, after making sure his movements were restricted by the collar, turned to leave.

"...master?"

He turned when he heard Sol's voice.

"Sol..??"

His pet was smiling. That look of fear he expected to find was nowhere to be found.

"...is Sol a good pet?"

"O-of course you are. Go rest now, your body needs to heal."

"Uhm... ok. Thanks, master!"

Amon was surprised at how effective today's training had been, but of course, he wouldn't complain. He was glad to have such a nice little pet.
