-DAY 10-

I let myself be captured by a group of humans with seemingly very dubious morals. That, however, was exactly what I was looking for, so I'm glad it worked out!

Yes this was, in theory, supposed to be for research on human behavior but I'm not going to pretend I don't have very personal reasons for picking this specific group to observe.

I really, really want to become a helpless sex slave who gets gangraped daily!!! It's not like I don't take my research seriously, I swear I do, but there's nothing wrong with having fun with it, is there??

Well, just as I had hoped, they locked me in a dungeon and promptly began using my body for their sexual relief multiple times a day.

They're a group of around 30 men, so it can be quite exhausting. Obviously, they don't all come here at once, but sometimes it feels like as soon as one leaves, another comes in. Because of this I have very little hours in the day where i don't have cock in at least one of my holes

I, of course, pretend to hate it and try to fight back a bit, as they seem to really enjoy the idea that they are doing these things to me against my will. I personally feel this is quite vile on their part, but as a researcher I must try to remain neutral.

Regardless, from my previous studies on different types of human societies, most of them seem to condemn this type of thing, so I wonder if that's why this lot live as outcasts or if perhaps there's some other reason.

Anyway... The food is pretty bland on its own but they think cumming on it before making me eat is degrading, so they do that most days. Apparently "forcing" me to go through these types of things gives them sexual satisfaction. At first, I thought it was weird, after all, this isn't something that stimulates their sexual organs, but I think I understand now.

I was really disgusted the first time they made me eat cum-filled food, but now I desperately want them to keep doing it. Not only does it make me incredibly horny, but even the foulest food they give me tastes delicious covered in cum!! So, of course, I try my hardest to pretend it makes me want to retch. This seems to be working!

In short, my daily life here is truly amazing! I wish I had started this little project sooner.

There's the small downside that sometimes they like to try and torture me for fun, which I find less enjoyable but it's still something I am willing to endure as long as I get what to be their sex slave at the end of the day.

If I had gotten into this situation before making my contract with that nice devil, I might be worried for my physical integrity but since I can regenerate any sort of damage done to my body, I feel quite at ease.

Their torture methods aren't that intense anyway, so they probably won't even notice I heal abnormally fast. If they do, I can just say it's an elf thing and they'll probably believe me, so there's not much to worry about.

Losing my cock, balls and my ability to cum was a really small price to pay if you think about it.

Well, there's also this other thing.

She, the devil who I made the contract with, also gave me a womb the ability to get pregnant! They will always be devilspawn no matter what, but I can get impregnated by pretty much any species, humans included.

Aaah, I wonder if those men will be surprised when my belly starts showing???

-DAY 200-

At first they were terrified when I started showing and I told them I was really pregnant. Thankfully, they seemed to be as ignorant about elves as I had hoped (like most humans), so they believed me when I said all elves could get pregnant no matter their sex.

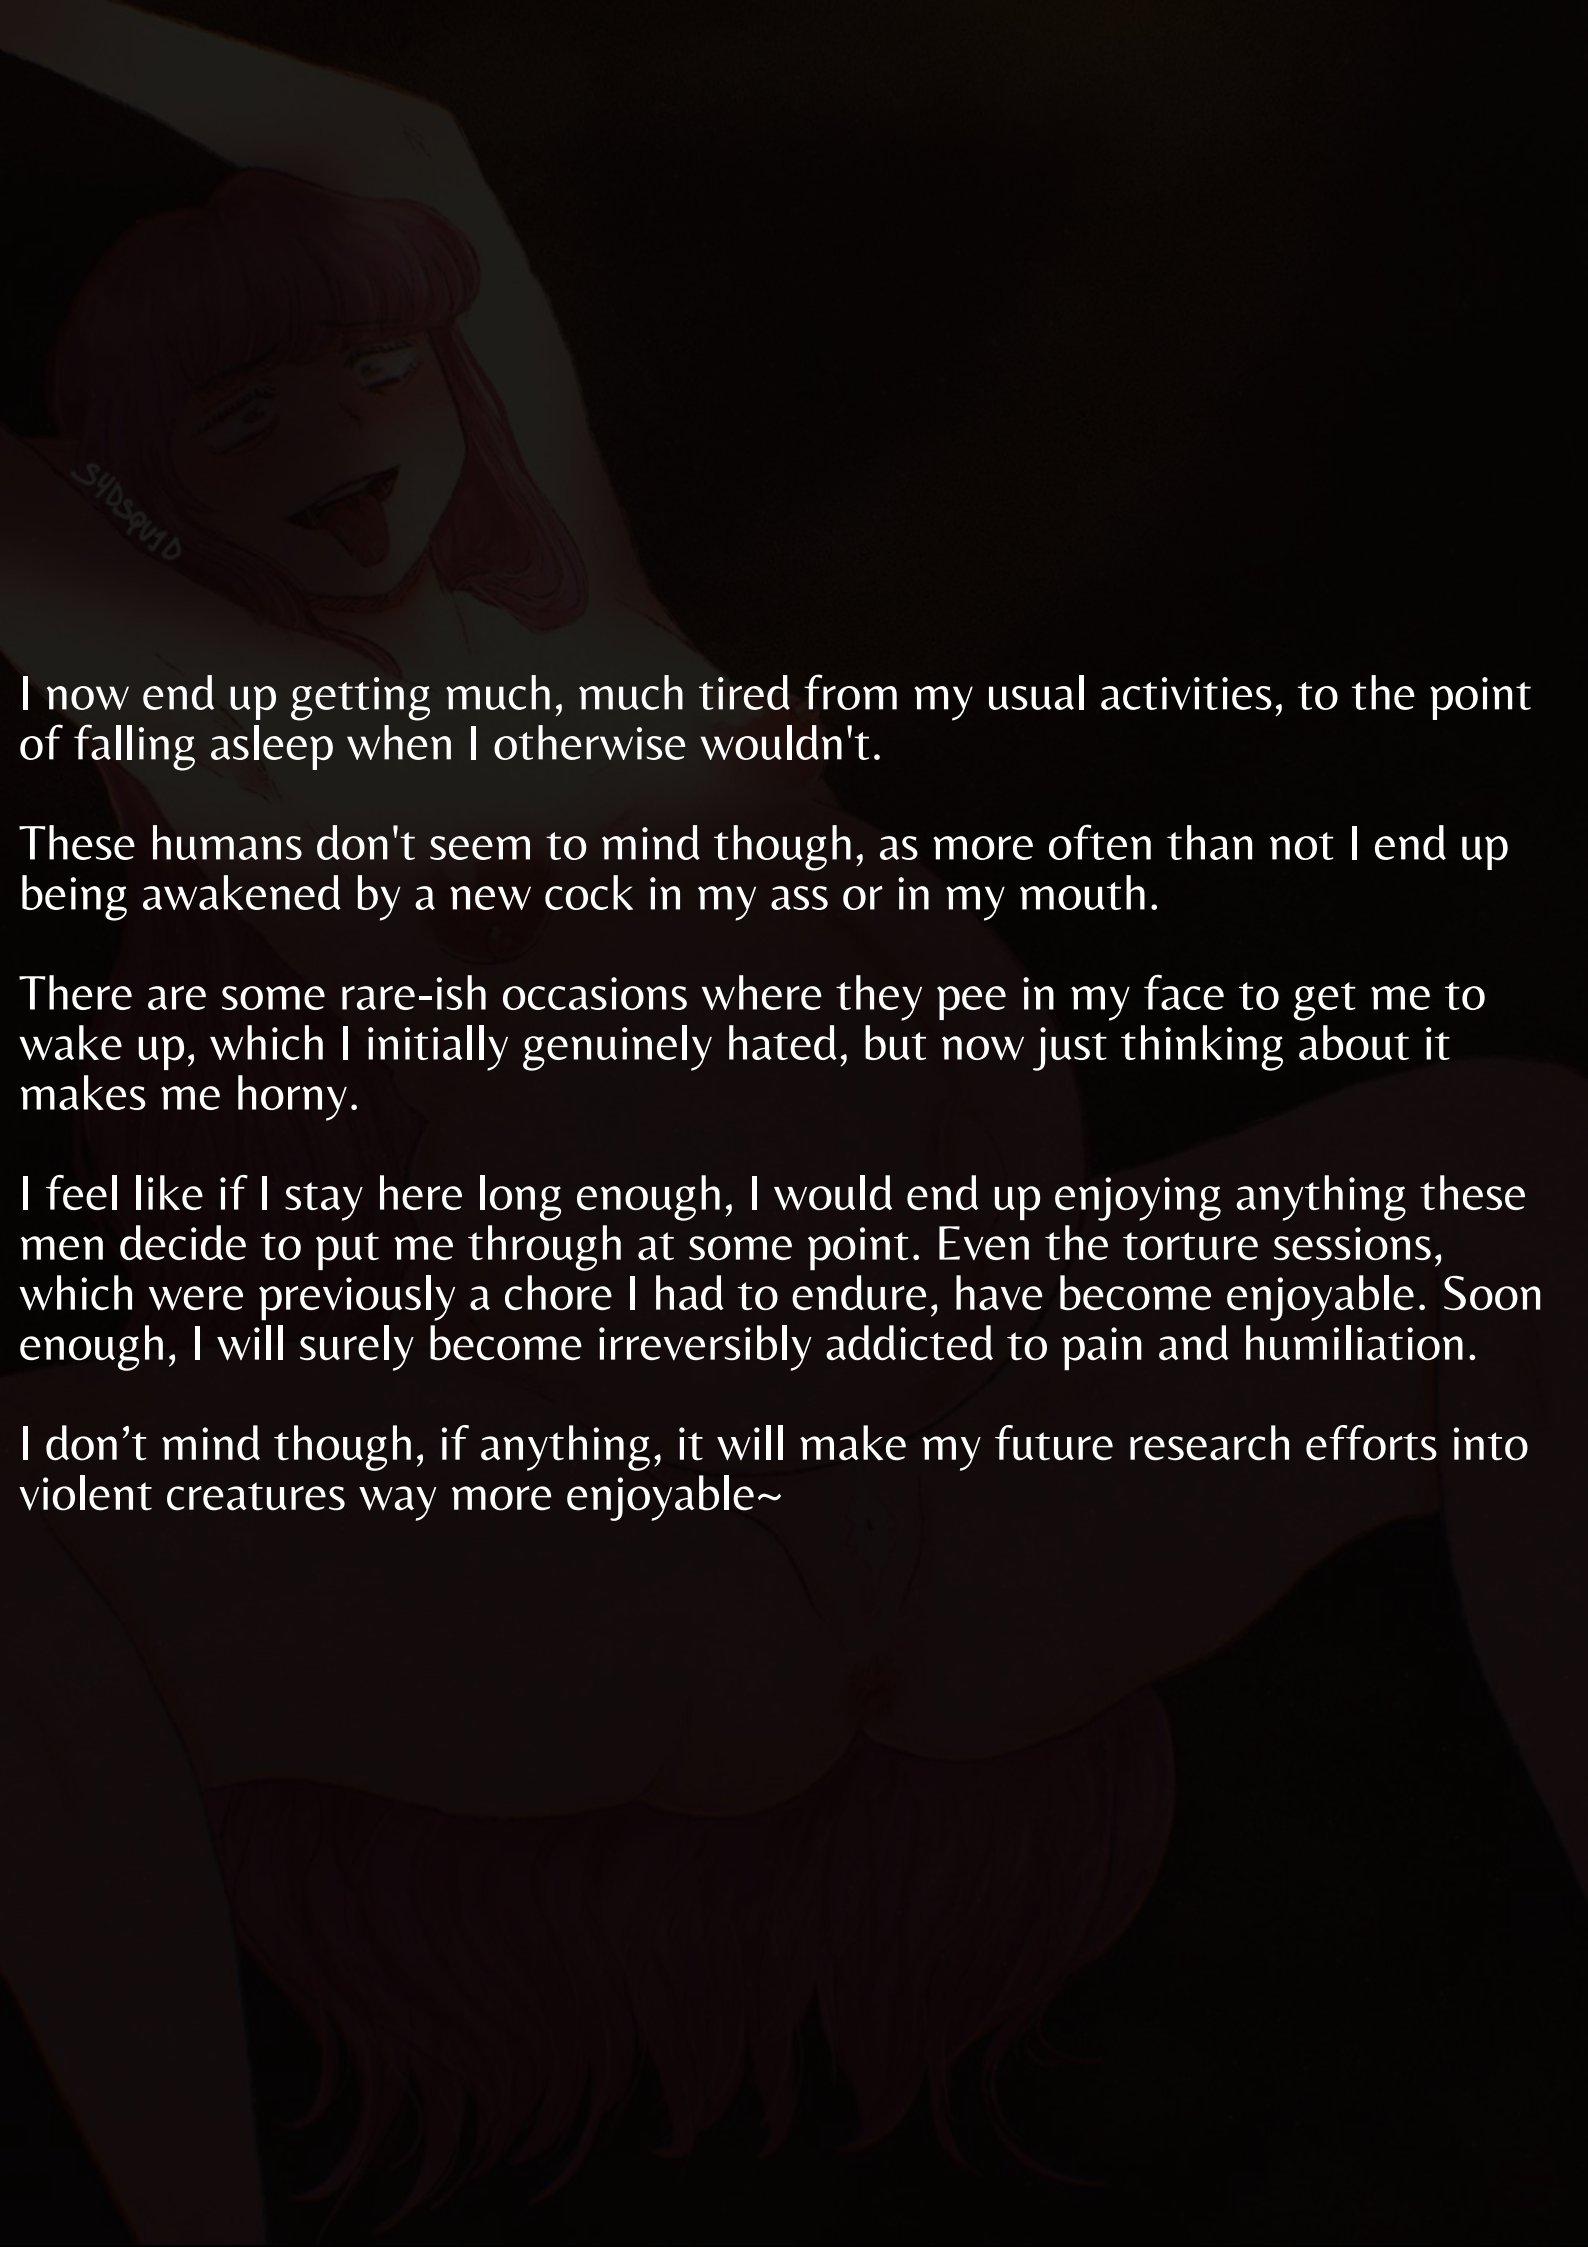

It was an absurd lie but I figured they would accept it better than the whole deal with a devil thing. I didn't want to risk them trying to kill me out of fear or something!

They wouldn't be able to harm me, of course, but I also don't want to end up having to escape, ending my stay early.

The behavior of some of the men's behavior began to change as my belly grew. Some of them are now a bit gentler when fucking me and avoid hitting or physically torturing me too much. Others became the polar opposite, being even more aggressive and violent.

Often these two types get into fights when trying to use me or just sharing the space of my cell. I had already established none of them particularly cares for my well-being, so it's quite bizarre to see that some of them seem legitimately concerned about a fetus I might be carrying one second and raping me without a second thought the next.

It will be an interesting thing to write about, for sure.

I now end up getting much, much tired from my usual activities, to the point of falling asleep when I otherwise wouldn't.

These humans don't seem to mind though, as more often than not I end up being awakened by a new cock in my ass or in my mouth.

There are some rare-ish occasions where they pee in my face to get me to wake up, which I initially genuinely hated, but now just thinking about it makes me horny.

I feel like if I stay here long enough, I would end up enjoying anything these men decide to put me through at some point. Even the torture sessions, which were previously a chore I had to endure, have become enjoyable. Soon enough, I will surely become irreversibly addicted to pain and humiliation.

I don't mind though, if anything, it will make my future research efforts into violent creatures way more enjoyable~

-DAY 310-

My belly is absolutely huge and I have grown real lactating breasts!!! It's really impressive how quickly they've grown!! I wonder if they'll stay like that once I give birth or if they'll go back?

Come to think of it, it would be quite troublesome if they stayed so huge...

But anyway...! The humans really like the fact that they squirt milk when played with. I can't say I don't enjoy it too, as the milk coming out makes my breasts all warm and my nipples feel really good and tingly.

Speaking of that, my nipples have become extremely sensitive, more than I ever thought possible. I swear, if I hadn't had my ability to cum taken from me when dealing with that devil, I could have orgasmed just with them being touched.

I don't really regret it though, the feeling of being constantly on edge and with my head filled with clouds for days on end makes forever losing the ability to cum completely worth it! Ah, and there's all the other stuff I got and gave up in the deal but that's not important right now.

The men have noticed this increase in sensitivity and how much the slightest touch affects me and now seem unable to take their hands and mouths from them. Which I'm very glad about, obviously.

My façade of pretending to hate everything has fallen long ago. The humans, however, think this is their doing and that they have "broken" me somehow. This is good for me but it's kinda fucked up that they believe their cocks are so good they could rape someone into enjoying them.

Good thing I know other humans because if this had been my first impressions...yikes! But well, that's rich of me to complain, considering I've been indulging and rewarding them for their vile behaviour for almost a full year now.

Well, it is at least partially for research, so I won't feel that bad!! Anyway, that's yet another thing to write about regarding these humans, I suppose...

Oh, and I should be ready to give birth soon! I hear devilspawn are quite big, so I wonder how much the birth will hurt... I have grown to enjoy pain, but hopefully it will feel good too!!

I keep trying to imagine how it must feel to have a huge, scaly egg slowly and forcibly spreading my asshole... If I still had a cock, I'm sure the very thought would make it hard, teehee!!!

Aww crap, my brain is even more fucked than it was when I went it, isn't it?

But anyway, I also can't wait to see the reactions from the group of men, hehe.

...Especially when they see my "baby" is a cloud of smoke that instantly vanishes as soon as it's out. They will probably freak out!

Of course, it's actually a devil egg, the cloud is just to conceal it from mortal eyes and for it to easily be transported to their devil parent. In my case, I am just gestating to them, their mom is the very devil I made my contract with.

Anyway, I promised Lenora I would return home right after my first devil babies were born anyway, so that means my time here is almost over.

What a shame!

I wonder if they'll keep me a while longer if I tell them some other bullshit lie? Maybe I can get pregnant again?? I'm sure Lenora will understand!!!

it's for research, after all.... right???
